

Profile of an Ideal PCA Graduate

Spiritual

- Articulates and practices a Biblical worldview
- Demonstrates knowledge, love, and practice of Truth
- Shows a vibrant relationship with God through Christ
- Demonstrates familiarity with Scriptures and Christian doctrines: basic characters, themes, creeds, etc.

Intellectual

- Strives for excellence
- Develops a curiosity and desire for life long learning
- Demonstrates an engaged heart and mind
- Develops strong work ethic and resourcefulness
- Articulates understanding of truth, beauty, and goodness
- Demonstrates ability to communicate winsomely and persuasively in written and spoken form
- Grasps confluence of academic disciplines
- Demonstrates good problem-solving skills

Social

- Engages in purposeful service to others
- Participates actively in Christian life and culture
- Demonstrates constructive coping skills when stressed/anxious/troubled
- Develops good time management skills
- Exhibits character and substance over charisma and style
- Actively cultivates inter-generational relationships
- Builds friendships authentically and appropriately

Cultural Influence

- Understands and accepts responsibility of Christians to be salt and light
- Exhibits the courage necessary to be a genuine servant leader
- Demonstrates winsome and eloquent apologetic for the Faith
- Embraces desire to engage culture in fruitful ways
- Seeks relevant opportunities to interact meaningfully with others