I. GENERAL PHILOSOPHY AND PURPOSE OF PCA

1.1 Profile of an Ideal Providence Graduate

Providence Classical Academy is committed, at its core, to nurturing a certain type of student, which we call our Ideal Providence Graduate. Our mission and vision, along with our accompanying values, strategies, and policies are all aimed at nurturing this sort of student.

Spiritual <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Articulates and practices a Biblical worldview</li><li>• Demonstrates knowledge, love, and practice of Truth</li><li>• Shows a vibrant relationship with God through Christ</li><li>• Demonstrates familiarity with Scriptures and Christian doctrines: basic characters, themes, creeds, etc.</li></ul>	Intellectual <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Strives for excellence</li><li>• Develops a curiosity and desire for lifelong learning</li><li>• Demonstrates an engaged heart and mind</li><li>• Develops strong work ethic and resourcefulness</li><li>• Articulates understanding of truth, beauty, and goodness</li><li>• Demonstrates ability to communicate winsomely and persuasively in written and spoken form</li><li>• Grasps confluence of academic disciplines</li><li>• Demonstrates good problem-solving skills</li></ul>

1.2 Objectives and Standards of PCA

In all endeavors curricular and co-curricular, the school strives to emphasize the grammar (the fundamental rules and general data), logic (the ordered, unified relationship of particulars) and rhetoric (the persuasive communication of the grammar and logic) of all disciplines; to encourage all students to develop a love of learning and to achieve their fullest academic potentials; to teach all subjects in the curriculum as parts of an integrated whole with the Scriptures at center; to provide virtuous models of Christian living in the members of the school's Board, administration and faculty; to encourage every student to cultivate a personal relationship with God the Father through Jesus Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit; and to provide an orderly and secure atmosphere conducive to the maintenance of these standards.

1.3 Mission, Vision and Principles

Mission Statement: Providence Classical Academy seeks to pursue the glory of God and the good of His people by providing a classical and Christian education founded upon a Biblical worldview, which equips students to know, love and practice the Truth and challenges them to strive for excellence as they live purposefully in service to God and man.

Vision Statement: Providence Classical Academy seeks to train students to be lifelong learners, who fully engage both heart and mind to know God. We want our students to have a relationship with God through Christ that is exhibited in every area of life and culture.

Providence Classical Academy is committed to the following principles to ensure that the vision of the school is implemented:

1. We demonstrate our Christianity in the context of relationships, loving each other with the love of Christ, encouraging each other to begin or develop a relationship with God through Christ, and treating each other with the dignity due creatures who are made in the image of God.
2. We are rooted in the Word of God and teach the Scriptures of both the Old and New Testaments in such a way that students realize that the meaning and purpose of life and education are found in them. We acknowledge God as the source and author of all truth.
3. We affirm that all of creation displays God's character and teaches us the meaning of beauty, goodness, and truth. Because all truth is from God, the universe is coherent.
4. We believe that studying is an act of worship with spiritual implications; therefore, studies are conducted as unto God. Shabby scholarship brings Him no glory and is a failure to recognize His presence in our classrooms and in our lives.
5. We stress the unity of knowledge, and we teach all subjects as part of an integrated whole. History is the story of God working in individuals and nations. It has a purpose and a destination. Because we are a western culture, we study western civilization with all its triumphs and failures.
6. Literature, music, and art are mankind's reflection of their understanding of the world. Properly done, the arts are a doxology, praising God and reflecting His truth, goodness, and beauty. Science and math are tangible evidence of God's orderliness and are our tools to explore the world and marvel at its design. Latin and formal logic sharpen our minds and teach us to analyze.

1.4 Statement of Faith

PCA Classical Academy emphatically affirms the essentials of the Christian faith, which are as follows:

- the divine inspiration of the 66 books of the Old and New Testaments, making them both inerrant and authoritative
- the existence of the infinite, personal, and holy God - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit
- the deity, the virgin birth, the sinless life, the supernatural miracles, the atoning death, the physical resurrection, the ascension, and the personal return of our Lord Jesus Christ
- the absolute necessity of salvation through faith alone, because of the shed blood of Christ, and only by God's grace, for the gift of eternal life

PCA also teaches the creation from the perspective of the Genesis record that God created all things from nothing and ordered and filled the heavens and the earth and saw that everything was very good. Alternative explanations, such as evolution, are introduced to allow students to critically examine both the secular and the biblical explanations.

PCA encourages respect for various positions among Christians concerning the following:

- the mode and appropriate age for baptism
- the chronological details of the return of Jesus Christ
- the practice of the ecstatic gifts within the body of Christ
- the most appropriate form of church government

These four areas are left to the teaching of the home and church. There shall be no attempt to promote these denominational positions. PCA desires to avoid the dissension that may be caused by denominational distinctives.

1.5 Secondary Doctrine

Doctrinal issues not addressed in the Statement of Faith are dealt with in the following manner:

1. Teachers must strive to present all classroom discussions of non-essential issues and doctrines in an informative, non-partisan fashion. Teachers must strive not to speak to the students in a manner causing offense to the parents.
2. Teachers must strive to portray fairly various perspectives on a given controversial issue. Teachers may communicate personal beliefs without playing the role of their advocate.
3. Teachers should encourage students to seek counsel on such issues from their parents and pastor.

1.6 Code of Ethics

To maintain the Christian witness of the school, all members of the Board, administration and faculty (as well as all delegated representatives of the school) must conform to biblical ethical standards at all times.

1.7 In Loco Parentis Policy

In loco parentis: Latin phrase meaning "in place of the parents."

To ensure the school respects the parents' ultimate authority in the education of their children, all members of the Board, administration, faculty and staff must remember that they operate only with delegated authority from parents, i.e., in loco parentis.

II. CORPORATE STRUCTURE

Providence Classical Academy, is a private, non-profit (501 [c][3]) organization registered as such with the federal government and the State of Louisiana. The school is located at 4525 Old Brownlee Road, Bossier City, Louisiana 71111, a location that may be changed at the discretion of the Board.

2.1 Board of Directors

PCA is a board-governed school. Board members are elected by the board. Detailed operational guidelines and responsibilities of the Board may be found in the school's By-Laws.

2.2 Head of School

The Head of School of Providence Classical Academy (PCA) is the chief executive of the academy and is charged with inspiring and overseeing the academic community, assisting the Board of Directors in casting and developing the vision of the academy, and overseeing the culture of the institution centered upon Biblical principles.

2.3 Dean of Upper School

The Dean of Upper School works closely with the Head of School and other members on the Administration team to ensure the programmatic excellence of the Upper School at Providence Classical Academy. This role oversees the daily execution of the Upper School and serves as direct administrator of Upper School students and faculty.

2.4 Dean of Lower School

The Dean of Lower School works closely with the Head of School and other members on the Administration team to ensure the programmatic excellence of the Lower School at Providence Classical Academy in grades Bridge-6. This role oversees the daily execution of the Lower School and serves as direct administrator of Lower School students and faculty.

III. SCHOOL OPERATIONAL GUIDELINES

3.1 Admissions and Enrollment

New Student Application

All parents wishing to enroll their children at Providence Classical Academy are required to submit an Application for Admission. Details of the complete application and the fees required can be found on the school website (www.pcabossier.org).

If a child is accepted, enrollment will consist of signing the Student Enrollment Agreement and paying the appropriate enrollment fee. Any other necessary paperwork will be completed and collected at that time.

Re-Enrollment

Current families may re-enroll current students beginning in January. Details of fees and tuition rates for the next academic year are provided to the families in January. In order to help administration determine the number of sections needed, parents must re-enroll current students by the deadline set by administration. If families do not re-enroll by the end of February, then they will forfeit priority to enrollment for the open spots and if the class is full will be moved to the waitlist. If there are issues about grade placement, the Dean of Upper School, in consultation with the student's parents and teacher(s), will determine what is in the best interest of the student.

Required Forms/Records

To ensure that the school complies with all necessary state regulations and to maintain pertinent information about all students entrusted to its care, the following guidelines must be observed:

1. The following forms are required to be on file for all students:
  - a. Application for Admission
  - b. Student Enrollment Agreement (one for each year)
  - c. Copy of Birth Certificate
  - d. Immunization Record
  - e. Student records (see #2 below)
  - f. Signed Statement of Faith
2. The school will coordinate the transfer of student records from schools attended previously by newly enrolled students. Should parental permission be required, the parents will be contacted to sign a release.
3. The records are kept in a locked room and will be kept confidential.

Payment of Tuition and Fees

PCA uses an independent third-party, FACTS, to collect payment of tuition and fees. All families will be required to maintain a FACTS account. If your account becomes more than 30 days past due, you will not be allowed to charge additional incidental fees.

In the event your account becomes more than 60 days past due, your child will not be allowed to attend classes until all past due charges are paid. You will remain liable for tuition for any missed days.

No students will be allowed to re-enroll in classes if an unpaid balance remains from a previous school year.

Student Probation

The school will automatically place all newly enrolled students on probation for one year. The probation can be terminated at the discretion of the administration after one term given sufficient evidence to support the likelihood of the student's long-term success at the school.

Withdrawal of a Student

A student's departure from PCA is considered a withdrawal if it takes place after a Student Enrollment Agreement has been signed for the current or upcoming school year.

PCA-Initiated Withdrawal of a Student:

Providence Classical Academy seeks to build a strong sense of community with families who are like-minded in its goals and objectives, and to maintain a student base that follows both its academic and behavioral standards. In order to accomplish this, PCA reserves the right to rescind an invitation to a student to return to PCA for the upcoming academic year. In the event that the school decides to rescind an invitation to return after the re-enrollment process has been completed, previously-paid fees for the upcoming year will be refunded accordingly.

Parent-Initiated Withdrawal of a Student:

The procedure for withdrawal by a parent requires that the parent:

1. Notify the Head of School of their intent in writing.
2. Set up an exit interview with the Head of School.
3. Sign a Request for Withdrawal Form, acknowledging their understanding of their financial obligation to pay the full year's tuition.
4. Turn in all textbooks, athletic uniforms, and any other items belonging to the school.

Financial Obligations following Withdrawal

If a family notifies the Head of School of their intent to withdraw a student at any time, the family is liable for all tuition except in the following circumstances:

1. The student's family is required by a third-party employer to move beyond a 50-mile radius from the school. (PCA requires proof of impending move.)
2. The student's primary financially-responsible parent becomes unemployed by a third-party employer. (PCA requires proof of loss of job.)
3. The death of a parent, sibling, or the student.

If one of these above circumstances does not apply, a family can expect to not be released from the remainder of the tuition. If one of the above applies, any over-paid tuition for the remainder of the school year will be refunded. However, we do not prorate individual months.

The family will not be released from their contract nor will student's records be released to the parent or another school until parents have fulfilled their financial responsibility to the school.

3.2 Assignments and Grades

Homework

For 7th through 12th grade: Homework assignments should be limited to a maximum time frame of 15 minutes times the appropriate grade level per night for the average student. This time frame should include the time required for reading. The rigor of Upper School studies will mean that students will have assignments every day, including Wednesdays. However, the maximum time frame should not be the typical homework load each night, but is reserved especially for major assignments and papers.

Students when writing papers need access to a computer and printer at home. If a student requires the school to print out an assignment, it may affect the student's grade on that assignment.

Effective Home Study Recommendations

The student should:

1. Select a quiet study area with a straight chair, flat table space, sufficiently bright light and all necessary work materials.
2. Schedule a specific study time each day for five or six days per week.
3. Study most days, even when no homework is assigned. It is recommended that students study each weekday or night, Monday through Thursday, plus one day on the weekend.
4. Review his/her more difficult subjects even when no homework assignments are brought home. Notes/materials/handouts from classes need reinforcement daily. Re-reading past assignments, texts, and other materials given in class is a very wise practice.
5. Reserve study as a quiet time; research has shown that TV, radio, and listening to music during study is distracting to most students - no matter what students believe. Distractions should be held to a minimum - younger siblings, pets, and electronic devices.
6. Devote time to reading daily.

Semester Exams

Comprehensive semester exams are usually given in Theology, English, Math, Science, History, and languages for students in grades 9 - 12 at the end of the first and second semester.

Comprehensive semester exams will also be given to 7th and 8th grades on a more limited number of subjects determined by the Dean of Upper School. The exams are scheduled for the last few days of the semester with each exam lasting 90 minutes. Seniors needing to take exams at the end of the second semester will take them a week early.

Semester Exam Exemption Policy

Seniors are exempt from their second semester final exams in year-long courses if they meet all of the following criteria:

1. An A average for the second semester (calculated three weeks before the final day of school).
2. A first semester grade of A.
3. No more than five absences during the first semester and no more than five absences during the second semester (number does not include school-sponsored absences). If absences are due to extenuating circumstances (i.e. prolonged illness), the decision is made at the discretion of the Dean of Upper School.
4. No major disciplinary action during the year.

Grading Scales

For Logic and Rhetoric Students

Letter Grades, percentages, and grade point equivalents follow:

Letter Grade	Percentage Grade	Regular Courses
A+	98-100	4
A	93-97	4
A-	90-92	4
B+	87-89	3.33
B	83-86	3
B-	80-82	3
C+	77-79	2.33
C	73-76	2
C-	70-72	2
D	65-69	1
F	0-64	0

Report Cards and Progress Reports

Report cards are sent home with students at the end of every grading period. During the grading period, a parent will be notified if a student’s grade begins a significant decline or if a pattern begins to develop in the student’s homework or conduct that indicates a cause for concern. Logic and Rhetoric students will receive a report each 9 weeks for parents to be aware of their student’s performance before final semester grades. Parents of students in grades 7-12 can also keep track of grades via RenWeb.

Academic Assistance for Students

All Logic and Rhetoric School teachers are to be available at least 30 minutes once a week for academic assistance. Students will be advised of each teacher's availability. Assistance is for students who are putting forth good effort to meet all regular requirements in class. It is not designed to compensate for inattention or lack of effort in class. Should a student fall behind in a subject, a more regimented tutoring schedule or tutoring from an outside source may be recommended at the parent's expense.

Student Honors and Awards

Upper School Honor Roll and Dean's List Requirements :

To encourage academic excellence, the school recognizes Honor Roll students' semester grades for logic and rhetoric students:

A student qualifies for the Dean's List when they have a GPA of 3.5 or higher.

A student qualifies for the Head of School's List when they have a GPA of 3.9 or higher.

Student Promotion

To establish consistent standards for academic promotion, current students must meet the following criteria in order to be promoted to the next grade:

Logic and Rhetoric Schools:

1. Logic and rhetoric students must maintain a GPA of at least 2.0 to qualify for promotion.
2. The Dean of Upper School will consider any petition to diverge from the requirements of this policy and will make a determination regarding such an appeal.

Academic Probation

Logic and Rhetoric School Students:

1. A student in grades 7-12 who carries a GPA below the academic probation threshold (2.0 with no failing grades in any subject) either quarterly for all classes being taken; quarterly for the four core disciplines of English, history, math, and science; cumulatively for all the transcript credit classes the student has ever taken; or who, in any quarter or semester, fails a class regardless of GPA, may be placed on academic probation for the following quarter. Additionally, the Dean of Upper School will schedule a parent conference to discuss the situation.
2. If after placement on academic probation, a student's quarterly GPA does not rise to or above the academic probation threshold for their grade collectively for all classes over the quarter, collectively for the four core disciplines of English, history, math, and science over the quarter, cumulatively for all the transcript credit classes the student has ever taken, and he/she does not earn at least a C- in a class failed during the previous quarter, the Dean of Upper School, in consultation with the Head of School and the student's teachers may determine whether the student ought to be dismissed from the school on academic grounds.
3. Students on academic probation may not participate in school-sanctioned co-curricular activities (this includes, but is not limited to, athletic participation).
4. If the Dean of Upper School deems the implementation of this policy unwarranted, then he/she may opt not to place a student on academic probation, in which case, she will include an explanation for the decision in the student's file.

3.3 Attendance and Tardy Policy

Regular school attendance is required by law, and prompt arrival to classes is important for a successful education at PCA. This policy is written with both the individual and the school community in mind. Providence's attendance and tardy policy is motivated by the need for order and accountability. The following guidelines and procedures have been established regarding attendance, tardies, and early departures. Final judgment regarding the legitimacy of an absence or tardy (as it relates to academic reporting) rests with the Dean of Upper School.

Definitions

Excused Absence:

1. Illness or extended medical appointment. A note from a parent is sufficient for an illness or medical appointment resulting in an absence of no more than two school days. For illnesses longer than two school days, a note from a licensed physician is required. Parents are strongly encouraged to make every effort possible to schedule medical appointments for their children after school hours or during school holidays.
2. Death of a family member
3. Natural disaster
4. Traffic accident that directly involves the student
5. Law enforcement order or court subpoena
6. Pre-arranged college trips for Rhetoric students. This will be verified by Providence's College Counselor
7. Extraordinary circumstances (such as surgery, not family vacations) or situations pre-arranged with the Dean of Upper School's permission
8. School-sponsored co-curricular activity

If there are circumstances not covered by one of the above, parents must petition the Dean of Upper School in writing. The Dean will determine the validity of the circumstances.

Unexcused Absence: Absence from school for any reason not listed as an excused absence (see above).

Excused Tardy: Any late arrival to school resulting from a doctor's appointment, temporary sickness, or from any situation pre-approved by the Dean of Lower School or Dean of Upper School will be excused. Delays caused by heavy traffic are not excused. However, delays caused by a major traffic accident will constitute a legitimate excuse.

Unexcused Tardy: Any late arrival to school for a reason not listed under an excused tardy. For logic and rhetoric students, being late to a class during the day for any reason not listed under an excused tardy or not excused by a teacher, staff member, or administrator.

Note: All absences and tardies will be marked as unexcused unless a note with a legitimate excuse is received by the school. Please turn in excuses on the day the student returns to school.

Additional Guidelines and Comments for all Students

1. All students should be in their classrooms by the times determined at the beginning of the school year as published on the school website. Students are encouraged to arrive at school at least 5-10 minutes before the first-period class begins. This allows students to get ready for the day by storing belongings, handling any personal matters, completing morning work and being settled in class prior to chapel.
2. Excused absences do not exempt the student from completing assignments. It is the responsibility of the parent or student to determine class and homework assignments they have missed. In situations of extended absences, the parent and/or the student should contact the teachers directly to discuss strategies for making up missed work.
3. Students/parents who wish to communicate a pre-arranged absence (i.e. scheduled surgery or college visit) should fill out a Pre-Arranged Absence Form (this form is available from the front office). The form should be returned to the office at least a week prior to the requested absence. It is the responsibility of students and parents to determine missed classroom and homework assignments. The Dean of Upper School will determine whether the future planned absence is excused or unexcused. Family vacations are unexcused.
4. The school will maintain records of attendance for each student and will include on each student's quarterly report card the total number of absences and tardies for the given marking period.
5. Given the negative impact absence and tardiness can have on a student's overall academic achievement, the Dean of Upper School will confer with the parents when absences or tardies become excessive in order to improve the student's regular and prompt attendance. A persistent problem in this area may impact a student's continuance at PCA and/or result in a probation period.
6. It is absolutely essential that the school know at all times who is on campus. For this reason, students arriving late to school in the morning or returning from an appointment MUST be signed in at the front desk by a parent/guardian. Students in grades 7-12 may sign themselves in at the E Wing. Students will then receive a pass to class. If requesting an excused tardy for a doctor's appointment or sickness, the student signing themselves in must bring a note from a parent or physician. Students arriving late to school in the morning will not be allowed to enter their classroom without a pass to class.
7. Advance notice of such early departures should be given whenever possible. No child may be checked out after 2:30 p.m.
8. Students are not allowed to leave campus during school hours unless they have written permission by a parent to check out. This rule is in effect starting from the time students arrive on campus. Any requests for exceptions to this rule must be submitted in writing by a parent (note, fax, or email) and approved by the Dean of Upper School. Unless there are extenuating circumstances, a phone call from a parent is not sufficient for the school to allow a student to leave the campus.

Student Attendance Requirements

The school calendar is designed to cover 174 days for students. The state mandates that all students attend at least 160 days during the school year regardless of whether absences are excused or unexcused. More than ten absences, for any reason during a school year, will prompt an administrative review.

Students should not expect a teacher to delay a test simply because they missed a day of school just before a test, but special consideration should be given to those students who have obviously been too ill to prepare for school.

Students may not participate in athletic events or other school-related activities on the same day they have been absent more than three class periods, except when the absence is due to a medical appointment. Although missing classes for an athletic event constitutes an excused absence, it is the student's responsibility to inquire as to any missed classwork or homework assignments.

Attendance Requirements Specific to Upper School

Students who miss more than fourteen (14) days for the year will be subject to dismissal from PCA. In high school courses, any student absent from a course more than ten times in one semester will ordinarily not be given credit for that course. A student who is more than 20 minutes late to a high school class is considered absent for that class. In grades 7-12, it is the student's responsibility to determine the class and homework assignments that were missed due to an absence. Deviation from any of these standards will require a written petition from the parents, followed by a review from the Upper School Dean and Head of School. Only very special circumstances, usually related to extended physical illness, would allow an exception to the above listed policy.

College Visitations

High school students are allowed a total of three excused absences each year during their junior and senior years for the purpose of college visitation. Permission must be obtained in advance of a visit for the absence to be excused. College visitation forms are available in the office. These excused absences will not count against students when exam exemption privileges are considered.

Tardy Policy

One of PCA's objectives is to create an environment that is conducive to learning. Tardiness is contrary to this objective. Tardiness is also contrary to the principles of discipline, accountability, and consideration for others.

Guidelines for Logic/Rhetoric School tardiness:

1. Students arriving to class after any of the eight daily class periods have begun will be considered tardy.
2. Repeated violations will result in additional disciplinary measures. Two tardies in any one day will lead to a demerit.
3. Teachers will inform a student of a tardy violation and enter the tardy into RenWeb.
4. Excessive tardies to any one class may result in demerits.
5. A student may be tardy three times in a nine-week semester with no consequences. Upon the fourth tardy, the family will be fined $5 for each additional tardy to the student's FACTS account.

Make-up Work Policy

1. Each teacher will determine which assignments are to be made up when a student is absent.
2. The following time schedule will determine the due date for make-up work for excused absences: For every day a student is absent, he/she will be granted that same number of school days to complete the work missed. For example, if a student is absent on a

- Monday, he/she will have one day, Tuesday, to complete the work missed. The completed work will be due on Wednesday. Days of the weekend are not calculated when determining make-up work due dates. For example, if a student is absent on a Thursday and Friday, make-up work will be due on Wednesday of the following week.
3. The following time schedule will determine the due date for make-up work for unexcused absences: A student will be allowed a day for the first two days missed (i.e., maximum of two days) to complete the missed work regardless of the number of days a student has missed. For example, if a student is absent for four days (Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday) he/she will have the following two days, Friday and Monday, to complete the work missed. The completed work will be due on Tuesday. Days of the weekend are not calculated when determining make-up work due dates. For example, if a student is absent on a Thursday, Friday and Monday, he/she will have the following two days, Tuesday and Wednesday, to complete the work missed. The make-up work will be due on Thursday.
  4. An exception to this policy applies to assignments that are due on a standing day every week, i.e., Friday spelling assignments or tests, memory work, or vocabulary exercises. If a student is absent on the day before a weekly assignment is due, he/she will be expected to come to school prepared to complete the assignment along with the rest of the class. In rare cases of emergency or extenuating circumstances, the teacher may decide to allow one of these types of assignments to be made up later. If a parent feels that a child's absence reflects an excusable hardship, he/she should discuss this with the teacher before sending the student back to class.
  5. In some cases when a parent knows in advance that his/her child will be absent (and the Pre-Arranged Absence Form has been received and determined excused by the Dean of Upper School), he/she may request work ahead of time with the understanding that in some cases this is not feasible. When assignments cannot be given in advance, the student will follow the guidelines explained in steps 2 and 4 in completing the work missed upon return to school. Work that is given to a student in advance is to be completed and turned in on the day the student returns to school. The parent should take care to clearly understand the teacher's expectations of the student prior to taking the student out of school for a reason other than sickness.

Special Note to Students

Students must learn the skill of planning ahead and good time management. Being an athlete or club member with long practice hours and possible late-night activities does not relieve one of the responsibilities of being at school on time, attending classes, turning assignments in on time, and taking tests when scheduled. Students may not participate in athletic events, academic competitions, school social activities, or other school-related activities on the same day they have been absent for more than three class periods, except where the absence is due to a medical appointment.

3.4 Campus Visitors

Campus Visits

1. All visitors to the PCA campus must sign in at the front office and receive a visitor badge.
2. With the exception of parents and guardians, students will not be permitted to receive visitors on campus during school hours, except during the lunch period. Such visitors must sign in at the front desk and have administrator approval.

3. PCA welcomes parental involvement in the classroom and school office. Parents should coordinate with their child's teacher or the school office.
4. Visits from parents who wish to sit in and observe a class are encouraged. However, all visits must be arranged in advance with the teacher and Dean of Upper School.
5. Visits from college students who wish to observe are allowed. They must sign in at the front office and sign an observation agreement form. All college observations should be arranged through the proper a teacher and/or the appropriate Dean.
6. For the safety of PCA students and employees, teachers and staff should stop anyone seen on the campus without a visitor's badge, elicit their name, direct them to the front desk, and notify the front desk about the unregistered visitor via a telephone or radio.
7. Students and parents are not normally permitted to bring pets into the school buildings unless permission has been granted from a teacher and the reason for the visit is to enhance the learning experience of the class.

Volunteers

A volunteer is anyone who is not an employee of the school yet works with students in any capacity (i.e. coaches, sponsors, regularly serves in the classroom or is left alone with students). All volunteers, chaperones, and drivers must submit a Trak-1 form. All volunteers are required to sign the Volunteer Agreement Form (a copy is located in the Appendix section of this handbook or may be picked up from the front office)

3.5 Parent Expectations

The purpose of our school is to promote the spiritual, physical, mental, moral, social, and emotional well-being of our students. PCA hopes to create a wonderful academic experience for every student, teacher, administrator, parent and community member involved. As part of creating a healthy culture, PCA parents have certain responsibilities that are summarized in the rules for engagement and parent expectations that follow.

Rules for Engagement

1. Accessing Teachers: If a parent needs to address a concern, please set up a conference or communicate with the teacher through school email.
2. Accessing Administrators: For classroom issues, parents should first address the teacher with their concerns before appealing to administrators to handle to the concern. In order to access the Dean of Upper School about these issues, parents are asked to provide proof of prior communication (email, letter, texts) in asking the Dean of Upper School to address an issue. Likewise, parents should have their student address athletic team concerns with the team's coach before asking the Athletic Director (with proof of prior communication with the coach) to become involved. Parents are also asked to provide proof of prior communication with the Dean of Upper School or Athletic Director in asking the Head of School to address any issue.
3. Guidelines for observing classes-If parents are concerned about recess or want to come observe a class including specials, please contact the Upper School Dean to discuss the nature of the concern and set up a time to observe. With any observation, parents may not take pictures/video of any children but their own. In keeping with PCA's Matthew 18 policy, any concerns from observations should only be discussed with the teacher and administration. Parents must sign a Observation Agreement Form.
4. Parents Confronting Children Other Than Their Own-Parents must never directly confront children other than their own at school or school-sponsored events regarding conflict between another student and their own child. If parents have concerns, they need - to first inform their child's teacher and then an administrator, so conflict can be solved.

5. Regarding frustrations with teachers, staff, parents, and students, social media is not the place to vent frustrations. In keeping with the Matthew 18 policy, please contact the teacher and then administration.

Parent Expectations

Each parent agrees to uphold the Parent Expectations when signing the registration packet/school contract.

*I understand that Providence Classical Academy seeks to exalt Christ and is on a continuous pursuit to encourage Christ-like goals, attitudes, actions, character, and desires to achieve the school's mission and vision statements.

*I will model good behavior at all times by honoring and respecting students, teachers, administration, and other parents.

*I will do my best to have my child at school on time and with all the needed materials. If my child is unable to attend, I will contact the school or teacher.

*I will support teachers, staff, and administration working with my child, in order to encourage a positive and enjoyable experience for everyone.

*I will ask my child to treat all other students, teachers, staff, administration, and other parents with honor and respect regardless of race, sex, creed or ability.

* I will not have any offensive, insulting, or abusive language or gestures to teachers, staff, and administration.

*I will support the school policy to NOT communicate with teachers in the "heat of the moment." Therefore, I will schedule a time to discuss any issues outside of class time and special events with the teacher. If need be, further concerns will be addressed with administration.

*Parents are good role models by appreciating the efforts made by both parents and the school. I will encourage family members and friends who may attend school functions to also observe these standards. Parents, teachers, and administration must work together in order to have the best possible academic experience.

If these expectations are not followed, the following consequences will result:

First time- Warning

Second time- Forbidden from school for a decided period of time-If parent violates period of time, they will be asked to leave and forbidden the rest of the year. If parent refuses to leave, the local authorities may be contacted.

Third time- Forbidden from school for the rest of the school year-If parent violates request, they will be asked to leave. If parent refuses to leave, the local authorities may be contacted.

Fourth time- This matter will be forwarded to the board for an expulsion hearing.

**If a parent threatens to harm the school or anyone in the school, physically or legally, or other extremely divisive behavior harmful to a healthy school culture, the Head of School can expedite the consequence, even to the point of forwarding the family to the board for an expulsion hearing.

3.6 Co-curricular Activities

This policy provides guidelines for all co-curricular activities in harmony with the school's established philosophy, purpose and standards.

A co-curricular activity is any organized, school-sanctioned activity involving student participation and enrichment beyond the normal curricular activities. Consequently, participation in activities such as field trips, student organizations, clubs, or athletics is voluntary.

Co-Curricular Expectations

1. Co-curricular activities should not take priority over the school's academic program.
2. Either a member of the school's Faculty, Staff, or an agent commissioned by the administration must serve as the director, coordinator, sponsor or coach of each co-curricular activity.
3. Unless the school's annual budget allocates specific funds for particular co-curricular activities, ad hoc activity fees or administration-approved organizations will underwrite all operating expenses.

For more details regarding the athletic program, please consult the athletic handbook.

3.7 Logic/Rhetoric Guidelines

College Counseling

Providence Classical Academy is committed to giving its students the tools for lifelong learning and helping them pursue the ends of education, which are wisdom and eloquence. PCA expects its students to desire admission to the best colleges for which they are fit. For that reason the students and parents of the Rhetoric School are served by the Dean of the Upper School. This person assists students and their parents as they prepare for college admissions. The School recognizes that planning for college is a multi-layered process; therefore, PCA has taken a holistic approach to equipping its students. The College Guidance Counselor takes the time to give attention to each individual in the 11th and 12th grades on a periodic basis but is available to meet with students and parents in other grades.

Academic Transcripts/Transfer Grades

A student's academic transcript includes all high school courses taken and the semester grades earned in each course. It is intended to be a complete and accurate record and is, therefore, not subject to exclusion of any part of the student's academic history. High school credits earned in 8th grade will also be reflected on the transcript and will count toward graduation requirements and a student's grade point average. If a student enters PCA after the 9th grade year, the high school credits and grades earned from another accredited school will count toward graduation requirements and the student's GPA.

Policy on Homeschool Grades: Any homeschool student entering PCA with high school credits earned in their 8th through 11th grade years will receive a P for any class passed or an NP for any class failed. Any grades given to PCA will not be reflected on the PCA transcript, unless they were earned through an accredited institution and issued on a transcript. The transcript will show only the course name and credit earned. Credits will be counted toward graduation requirements. No more than 8 courses per year can be transferred. Any GPA calculations and reporting for TOPS Scholarship, colleges, or PCA achievements and awards will not include homeschool grades since they are not a part of our transcript.

If a student takes a course at another institution for enrichment or advancements, that course and grade will not be included on the PCA transcript. The exception to this is if a student is participating in an official college joint enrollment program approved by the administration and the course taken is a required course for graduation because the student is unable to take the course that PCA offers.

An official transcript will be sent to colleges, scholarship programs, or other parties as requested by the student. Request forms may be printed from the guidance section of the school's website and turned into the College Guidance Counselor.

Graduation Requirements

Minimum core credits required for graduation for the classes of 2012 and after are as follows: 4 English, 4 math, 4 science, 4 social studies, 2 foreign language. Additionally, two credits of Religion are required for all students except transfer students, who must take Religion each year in attendance if scheduling allows. Students should be advised, however, that these are minimum requirements and may not be sufficient for admission to more selective colleges. Further, students may not opt out of academic classes by using minimum requirements as a reason. The minimum requirements are designed to accommodate students who have failed classes. PCA's goal is to have students take the most challenging course load available.

Students who graduate with an academic average of 90 or above will be named honor graduates. The students who graduate with the highest two academic averages will be named class valedictorian and salutatorian. These top two honors are calculated based on a four-year numerical record and are reserved for students who have been enrolled full-time at PCA for a minimum of three consecutive years. Any honors will only be given to students who are also in good standing with the school. In case of a tie for valedictorian or salutatorian, the student's ACT score will be used to determine the honor (if still tied, the highest sub-scores from individual tests).

Dual Enrollment

Some courses that PCA offers will also be eligible to receive college credit through a partnership with an accredited college or university. The cost of these courses must be paid by the student's family. Courses taken through local colleges will normally not be counted as graduation credit for classes also taught at PCA. The only exception to this is when the student is unable to take the class taught at PCA and the dual credit course is previously approved by the administration at PCA. For these courses as well as electives taken through colleges, the family is responsible for providing transcripts from the college to PCA as proof of the courses taken and credits earned. These grades will not be calculated into the GPA for purposes of class rank or honors.

3.8 Communication

Start of School Orientation

The Start of School Orientation provides a time for parents to learn about critical policies of the school and receive important information about the start of school.

Parent/Teacher and Parent/Dean Conferences

1. Parents of PCA students are encouraged to stay in close communication with their child's teachers and, if necessary, the Dean of Upper School. Educating children is the responsibility of parents, and as such, the Administration and Faculty at PCA see

- themselves as part of a bigger team.
2. Parent/teacher conferences are held each fall (especially for families new to the school). Parents are encouraged to utilize these conferences in order to communicate directly with their child's teachers. It is only through close home and school cooperation and communication that the educational ideals of PCA can be achieved. These conferences are scheduled through the school office for the logic and rhetoric schools.
  3. A parent can schedule a conference with a teacher at any other time during the school year by contacting the teacher directly (preferably via email). To schedule an appointment with a Dean, parents should call the school office.
  4. The school can schedule a conference as needed with parents of students who have academic needs, who have disciplinary concerns, who are in danger of not being promoted, or who are struggling for any reason.
  5. Student participation in conferences is promoted in the logic and rhetoric schools.

State of the School Address

A school-wide meeting will be held in January with the intention of recasting the mission and vision of the school to parents. The meeting will also serve to announce upcoming plans, as well as to note accomplishments of the current school year.

PCA Communication Channels

PCA strives to be distinctive in the area of relationships and communication, and to that end, many different methods are used to communicate with parents. The following is a summary of the variety of communication channels utilized by the school. In addition, the school uses email extensively to communicate with parents. Parents should check their email regularly and inform the school if their email address changes.

- RenWeb: This computer software program is used to record student attendance, serves as a gradebook for teachers and allows parents to check their child's attendance and grades via RenWeb. Teachers are asked to keep their gradebook up-to-date so that at any given time a parent can see their student's grades. Parents can expect grades posted within a week of the date of the assignment.
- Grade Reports: Parents of students are expected to review their child's progress through RenWeb. Students in the upper school receive electronic report cards at the end of each semester.
- School-Wide Mailings: The school tries to consolidate mailings to parents whenever possible and often uses student communication means for delivering information to parents. On some occasions, mail will be used schoolwide to assure simultaneous delivery to all families.
- Facebook: Providence Classical Academy has two Facebook pages. One is public and shares general information. The other is a closed group to allow parents to get information and/or get specific questions answered.

Please Note: Parents and non-PCA groups may NOT use PCA's various communication channels to publicize, sell, or promote anything. These channels are only intended for the exchange of PCA-related information. If you have questions ask a school administrator.

Telephone Usage/Parent Messages

1. Students may use the office to make necessary phone calls or texts if they have received permission from their teacher. (i.e. to inform a parent that after-school practice is cancelled or if they become ill).
2. Because the use of cell phones by students during school hours is prohibited, urgent or important messages should be made through calling the school office. The office staff will make sure students receive them. Please limit the number of messages for your child, particularly towards the end of the day when the office is very busy. It is very difficult to ensure delivery of messages called in after 2:30 p.m.
3. A parent should not expect to be able to reach their student by text or cell phone during the school day.
4. We prefer that students not be taken from their class to take a phone call.

School Calendar

The issue of celebrating certain holidays and the level of participation falls within the realm of Christian freedom. PCA's position regarding diverse Christian freedoms has been to build harmony, unity, and fellowship instead of divisiveness. The school does not want to dictate an area of Christian freedom and believes that each family should determine the level and means of celebrating holidays with religious impact in their home. In order to respect the different positions among our school families, Halloween will not be celebrated at school. Beyond that, the emphasis will be placed on the Christian significance for a holiday. The secular elements of a holiday will be minimized or excluded.

Communication with Divorced and Separated Families

The following policy is intended to clarify a number of issues that are sometimes confusing to both staff at the school and parents in a divorce or separation situation:

- Enrollment Agreement: Unless one parent has sole custody of a student enrolling in PCA, both parents should sign the Enrollment Agreement. Even without a signature of both parents, each is held responsible for following the school's policies and procedures.
- Primary Parent: The school will send all correspondence requiring a response to the parent living at the student's primary residence.

Communication of Student Concerns

For all student concerns, PCA encourages students to bring their concerns to their teachers. Any student having a major concern for himself/herself or for someone else (e.g., bullying or self-hurt), may bring the concern to the Dean of Upper School either personally or via a comment box located in the main office. The comment box allows for anonymity in reporting.

3.9 Computer Usage Policy

Computer and Internet usage will be allowed only upon receipt of a signed copy of Computer and Internet Usage Agreement form, which is located in the Appendix of the handbook.

Introduction

PCA is pleased to provide students in grades 7-12 access to its computer network for educational purposes, including restricted access to the public internet for research associated with their course of study.

The school is not able to guarantee that a student will never be able to access inappropriate internet content, particularly if that student makes intentional, determined, and sustained attempts to do so. Abuse of the school's internet connection by students or inappropriate use of technology by students can result in students being banned from using personal electronic devices on campus.

Student Guidelines

Students given access to the school computers will be given a unique password which they are expected to keep confidential.

None of the following is permitted without the explicit permission from the administrative staff:

1. Installation of non-approved software on PCA computers
2. Reconfiguring PCA computers
3. Gaming on any computer

Guidelines for student-owned computers (only allowed for 9th-12th grades):

1. Use on school campus is intended solely for academic purposes
2. May be used during class only with explicit teacher permission
3. Are subject to monitoring (must be willing to grant access to PCA staff)
4. Are not to be used for personal communication without explicit teacher permission

Violating the guidelines may result in:

1. Restriction or loss of network access (this forfeiture may directly impact assignment grade)
2. Disciplinary action by the administration

In order to ensure that computers/devices and the internet are used in a proper manner, the administration and staff have the authority to monitor all aspects of technology usage which occurs within the school facility.

Social Media Guidelines

Social Networking (online via computer or phone) is a popular means of social interaction in today's culture, especially among teenagers. PCA advises parents to use caution and to be diligent when deciding at what age and to what extent they allow their children to access these networks. There are significant risks associated with all forms of social media, so for the protection of students at PCA, parents must monitor their child's use of social media. However, students will be subject to school discipline if inappropriate posts are made regarding PCA and/or any of its teachers, staff, or students. This includes criticism, embarrassment, the spread of gossip, and false claims. All complaints or concerns regarding PCA, any faculty/staff member, student, or parent should be addressed with the person or parties involved, not on social media. In addition, students who post pictures/images in PCA clothing (uniform, t-shirts, athletic attire, etc.) or on school property that misrepresent the values of the school, including but not limited to foul language, sexually explicit words and/or images, and embarrassing photos of themselves or any other PCA person/community member, will be subject to discipline, including expulsion from the school. While PCA's administrators do not search for students' misconduct or misuse of social media, if any of the above-stated posts or pictures are brought to the attention of the PCA administration, it will be investigated and addressed with the student(s) and parent(s) according to PCA's disciplinary procedures.

Students are not permitted to be online during school hours, unless directed by PCA teachers/staff. Online use is only permitted for academic purposes, such as historical research and writing and current event discussions.

The PCA administration seeks to guard the school, its students, and the reputation of all involved parties. Therefore, guidelines have been developed for the use of social networking by school employees, especially as it may pertain to students. We do not prohibit faculty and student interaction on social media since it can have many positive aspects.

3.10 Student Conduct and Discipline

School Discipline Principles

The policy set forth below, which applies to all students in the upper school, is designed with the intent to apply consistent and orderly discipline based on Christian virtues and biblical principles.

1. The purpose of discipline is to cultivate an orderly environment with high behavioral standards that makes possible the training up of virtuous scholars.
2. Teachers are expected to deal with the majority of disciplinary matters at the classroom level. Teachers, and if necessary, the administration, will determine the method and severity of punishment for misbehavior. Equity, love, and respect for the individual and for the larger student body must motivate all discipline at PCA.
3. Biblical principles regarding sin and punishment should guide all disciplinary actions, which may include private and public apologies, damage restitution, the restoration of broken fellowship, and additional appropriate means. Repentance and reconciliation are integral to the discipline of students.
4. If a student commits an act of such seriousness that the Dean of Upper School considers swift and decisive action necessary, the Dean, in consultation with the Head of School, may circumvent the procedures outlined below and suspend a student immediately.

Conduct around Campus

These guidelines are intended to establish standards of etiquette to ensure that students treat others with courtesy and respect and that they respect both common and private property. The guidelines apply to students while in school or attending school-sponsored activities.

In the Classroom

- Because we live in community, students are expected to abide by protocols communicated to them by their teachers.

In the Hallways

- Students should acknowledge all teachers, administration and staff by name (once known), and should acknowledge all adults with a polite greeting ("good morning," or "good afternoon," or even "hello").
- Students should walk quietly in the halls at all times, staying to the right side of the hallway to allow room for others to pass. No running will be permitted in the hallways at any time.

Lunch Time

- Students must sit in an orderly fashion at tables. Conversation should not be overly loud, and the student must follow any instructions given by any of the school's faculty, administration, staff, or designated parents.
- All trash must be disposed of after a student has finished eating. Tables must be cleaned by the student or assigned class groups before lunchtime is over or before anyone may go to recess.

Outside and at Dismissal

- Students must behave in a way that ensures the safety of themselves and others.
- All trash must be disposed of properly. Students leaving their trash on the ground will be given grounds-patrol duty (picking up trash).
- Students must follow instructions given by any of the school's faculty, administration, staff, or designated duty teachers.
- During dismissal, conversation should not be overly loud, and the students must follow any instructions given by any of the school's faculty, administration, or staff members. The use of electronic devices during dismissal will be under the discretion of the designated duty teachers and/or the Dean of Upper School.

Discipline Policy for the Upper School:

The Logic and Rhetoric School uses a demerit system to document and address misbehavior.

Student offenses that will receive a single demerit include repeated tardies (tardy to any 2 classes in a day or persistent tardiness to one particular class), violation of the uniform policy, disruption of class, persistent refusal to do homework or prepare for class, general disobedience, or violation of the cell phone or electronics policy.

Any of the following offenses will likely result in multiple demerits (up to 5, depending on severity): Bad language, disrespect to adults or other students, amorous displays of affection on campus or at school events, destruction of property, cheating, lying, stealing, fighting, or bullying.

For the first 5 demerits in a school year, the teacher will notify the Dean of Upper School and parents by email or phone about the issues, and remind them of the detention policy. For every 5 demerits that they receive, students will experience differing levels of consequences:

- For the 1st & 2nd Levels in a school year (5-10 demerits), a student will be sent to the Dean of Upper School, a call will be made to the student's parents, house points lost, and the student will have to serve detention.
- For the 3rd Level (15 demerits), the student will be sent to the Dean of Upper School, who will then have a conference with the student's parents, house points will be lost, and the student will be assigned to serve a Saturday work detail.
- For the 4th Level (20 demerits), the student will be sent to the Dean of Upper School, who will then have a conference with the student's parents and teachers and Head of School, and the student will have to serve a 1-day at-home suspension, in which they will only be able to receive a max of 1/2 credit on work missed. The incident will then be reported to the PCA Board.
- For the 5th Level (25 demerits), the student will be sent to Head of School, who will then have a conference with the student's parents and teachers. The student will be referred to the PCA Board for an expulsion hearing. The student will have to serve a suspension until the expulsion hearing takes place. The incident will then be reported to the PCA

Board.

- Any further demerits will likely result in immediate expulsion, depending on the results of the prior expulsion hearing.

PCA strives to provide an educational environment which reflects and promotes Christian values; which is safe, productive and nurturing; and which is free of drugs, alcohol, illegal substances and immoral behavior. Any student who engages in illegal or immoral behavior is subject to appropriate disciplinary action.

Acts of serious misconduct could result in a student being suspended or expelled. Reasons that could warrant such action include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Violation of the Academic Dishonesty Policy (below)
- Continued deliberate disobedience/disrespect
- A rebellious spirit that is unchanged after much effort by the school staff
- Contributing to the spiritual or moral decline of other students
- Sexual misconduct
- An act endangering the lives of others
- A serious breach of conduct
- Vandalism of school property
- Violations of civil law

Reasons other than behavioral ones that could give cause to dismiss a student from school include, but are not limited to: failure to maintain passing grades, falsifying information during the application process, failure to maintain financial commitment, or other reasons as deemed necessary for the good of the school.

Cell Phones and Electronic Equipment

1. Upper School students are NOT ALLOWED to use cell phones or other personal electronic devices during the school day. All cell phones or other personal electronic devices must be turned off and stowed in the backpack between the hours of 7:50 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. No cell phones are permitted at lunch or in study hall. PCA provides computers for academic work so there is no need for personal electronics. If there is an emergency, the parent may call the school office, and they will get a message to the student. Disciplinary procedures for cell phone/electronic device violations are as follows:

First offense for the year: Demerit and confiscation of phone/device for the entire day

Second offense: Demerit/confiscation of phone/device for the remainder of the day
parent may pick up the phone/device from the Dean of Upper School

Third offense: 2 demerits/confiscation of phone/device for the week-parent may pick up the phone/device from the Dean of Upper School with a $10 fee.

Fourth Offense: 5 demerits/confiscation of the phone/device for a month/conference with Head of School and parents. Student may be forwarded to the board at this point.

2. Upper School students may use recording devices in specific classes with the permission of the teacher. Students using a recording device without the teacher's permission will be subject to disciplinary procedures. Students may not use their camera or video functions for any reason during the school day without administrative approval.

Student Locker Policy

1. The use of student lockers at PCA is a privilege. PCA has the authority to assign, limit the use of, or terminate the use of students' lockers. If these policies are not adhered to, students will be disciplined, which could follow with result in loss of locker privileges.
2. PCA has authority to open and inspect lockers as well as to take custody of any contraband items found in lockers. Contraband will be considered any item so defined by law, policy, regulation, or any item deemed by the administration to be a danger to health, safety, and welfare of our students. The discovery of such contraband items could result in disciplinary action.
3. It is strongly advised that assigned lockers be locked at all times by a combination or key lock purchased by the parents. PCA is not responsible for lost or stolen items that are in an unsecured locker. It is expected that students will not share their locker combinations or open lockers not assigned to them.
4. The correct lock combination or spare key must be on file with the administration. If a locker cannot be accessed by the code on file, the lock will be cut and replaced at the parent's expense.
5. Students are responsible for keeping their lockers clean, neat, and secured. Failure to maintain a locker could result in the loss of locker privilege. Content of a locker is the responsibility of the students to whom the locker is issued. If items that do not belong to a student are placed in his locker, the student has the responsibility to inform the administration. No student shall access another student's locker without permission.

Items Prohibited

These items are not allowed for use on campus during school hours:

- Skateboards, hoverboards, scooters, skates, roller blades, shoes with wheels
- Lighters, knives, firearms, etc.
- The Head of School or Deans may add to this list at any time they deem necessary.

Students who possess a deadly weapon on school property or at school functions may be reported to the appropriate police authority and face immediate suspension and/or expulsion. Students who are aware or suspect that a deadly weapon has been brought or will be brought on campus should alert a teacher or administrator immediately.

Substance Abuse and Weapons

It is the School's goal to cultivate an atmosphere in which moral and spiritual growth can thrive, integrating lifestyle with Christian principles and devotion to Christ. The school encourages students to see that living a Christian lifestyle is based on conscious choice rather than mere adherence to a strict moral code or acceptance of prevailing practices in society at large.

Christian lifestyle is expected of all students and consists of practicing Christian virtues and avoiding attitudes and actions that the Bible condemns as sinful.

PCA expects its students to abstain from the use of alcohol and other controlled substances at all times. Experimentation with or use of alcohol and other controlled substances is irresponsible social behavior and a detriment to one's learning potential, destructive of the learning environment for oneself and others, potentially dangerous, and illegal.

PCA believes it has a responsibility to assist students and families faced with this issue and will take necessary action to protect the rest of the student body.

The goal of disciplinary action is not only corrective, but also restorative. Therefore, the school strongly believes that professional counseling involvement and appropriate follow-up through action may be necessary when such discipline is required at the parent's expense. PCA strongly suggests the family notifies their church to allow their involvement and support for the student. In addition, suspension or other disciplinary action may be necessary for students who violate the school's expectations related to alcohol and/or controlled substances.

Drug Dealing: Selling, supplying, or distributing any controlled substance, regardless of where the infraction occurs will result in immediate suspension, notification of the police, and a recommendation for expulsion.

Drug Usage: Any student who, regardless of time or location, possesses, uses, or is under the influence of illegal drugs, controlled substances (including alcoholic beverages), or who possesses associated paraphernalia, is subject to disciplinary action, which may include suspension, probation, mandatory counseling, or expulsion.

Drug Testing: At any time the administration may use its discretion to require random drug testing to any and all of the student body.

First Offense

The parents will be informed when a student is known or suspected to be using or possessing the above-mentioned substances. If a student is suspected by the Administration of using any of these substances, the Upper School Dean may request permission from the parents to administer or obtain a drug test. Refusal to comply with this requirement may be grounds for expulsion.

If it is determined that the student is using illegal drugs, the parents of the student will be required to meet with the Upper School Dean and the Head of School to discuss intervention/prevention program options and make necessary arrangements. The student may not be readmitted to school until this meeting has taken place.

Parents and the student will be required to complete the program chosen by the parents and approved by the Head of School and required to follow the recommendations made at the closing interview. The Head of School shall be supplied with a written evaluation of the student's progress from the professional in charge of the program upon the program's completion. Refusal on the part of the student and/or parents to fully participate and follow recommendations may result in expulsion. The school will seek to work closely with the program directors, the student, and the parents to insure proper follow-up.

Depending upon the severity of the offense, the Upper School Dean in consultation with the Head of School may suspend the student (for a minimum of three (3) days), and in extreme cases may contact legal authorities. In addition, a probation period in which students are not permitted to participate in co-curricular activities will be applied. During the probation period, the teachers will also evaluate the student's attitude and behavior at school. Appropriate recommendations will be made to the Dean of Upper School.

As a restorative measure, mandatory counseling may be required for the student. The details of this counseling will be worked out between the Upper School Dean and the family.

Additional Offenses

The student will be suspended and the Upper School Dean will make a recommendation to the Head of School regarding the student's future relationship with the school.

General Provisions

The Head of School reserves the right to expel students for first, second, and additional offenses.

Tobacco

1. The use and/or possession of tobacco and tobacco products (including electronic cigarettes) by parents, students, visitors and employees is prohibited on school property and at all school events.
2. For the first offense, students may be suspended and placed on probation, which would prohibit involvement in extracurricular activities for a specified period (to be determined by the appropriate Dean).
3. Repeated offenses may result in a ban from extracurricular activities, additional suspensions, or possible expulsion.

Weapons

1. The possession of any explosive device or weapon, including but not limited to guns and knives, is not allowed on school property or at any school events.
2. Any object used to threaten or otherwise create concern in the school community will be treated as if the object were a weapon.
3. Violations of these rules will result in immediate suspension and could be grounds for expulsion.

Academic Dishonesty Policy

1. Lying. Lying is communicating untruths or misrepresentations in order to gain an unfair academic advantage. It includes, but is not limited to:
  - a. misrepresenting one's own research
  - b. providing false or misleading information in order to be excused from classes or assignments
  - c. intentionally underperforming on a placement exam
2. Cheating. Cheating is the act of wrongfully using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, study aids, or the ideas or work of another in order to gain an unfair advantage. Any use of materials without explicit permission from the teacher of the class which gives a student an advantage that all other students do not have will be considered cheating. These include, but are not limited to:
  - a. giving unauthorized aid to another student or receiving unauthorized aid from another person on tests, quizzes, or examinations
  - b. using or consulting unauthorized materials or using unauthorized equipment or devices on tests, quizzes, or examinations
  - c. altering or falsifying any information on tests, quizzes, assignments or examinations

- d. using any material, portion of a paper or project to fulfill the requirements of more than one course unless the student has received prior faculty permission to do so
  - e. working on any examination, test, quiz or assignment outside of the time constraints imposed
  - f. submitting an altered examination or assignment to an instructor for re-grading
  - g. failing to adhere to an instructor's specific directions with respect to the terms of academic integrity or academic honesty
3. Stealing. Stealing is the act of intentionally taking or appropriating the academic work of another, including plagiarism, without consent or permission and with the intent to keep or use the property without the permission of the owner or the rightful possessor
  4. “Plagiarism” occurs when a student, with intent to deceive or with reckless disregard for proper scholarly procedures, presents any information, ideas or phrasing of another as if they were his/her own and/or does not give appropriate credit to the original source. Proper scholarly procedures require that all quoted material be identified by quotation marks or indentation on the page and that the source of outside information and ideas be identified and attributed to that source. Students are responsible for learning proper scholarly procedures.

All academic work undertaken by a student must be completed independently unless the faculty member or other responsible authority expressly authorizes collaboration with another.

All instances of academic dishonesty will be punished. Normally, if intent of academic dishonesty is likely, this will result in a 0 on the test or assignment. Repeated instances will likely involve failing the class and suspension and could result in expulsion. Participating in any form of academic dishonesty will normally also result in 5 demerits or more. Even the appearance of academic dishonesty will result in some form of punishment.

3.11 Student Dress Code

PCA believes that uniforms play an important role in maintaining a culture conducive to cultivating virtuous scholars. In many respects the uniform is the face of PCA. Uniforms encourage a sense of school identity and cohesion and also help to raise the standards of the school's academic and cultural pursuits. Rather than expressing themselves through fleeting youth fashion, students at Providence are expected to express themselves through their good attitudes and behavior, keen minds, and willing hearts. Like physicians, nurses, athletes, firefighters, military, and chefs, students at PCA wear uniforms.

1. A student must be in full uniform from the time he or she exits the car in the morning until he or she is in the car on the way home, unless students are changing clothes for an athletic practice or game.
2. Our exclusive uniform provider is Land's End. We have found that the quality and price is consistently the best.
3. Uniforms must be worn at all times (including field trips) unless the Dean of Upper School gives permission otherwise.
4. If the Dean has authorized a student to be out of uniform (i.e. a free dress day or a field trip where wearing a uniform would not be practical), the student is expected to be

- prudent in choosing clothing and should conform in spirit to the Providence dress code. Jeans are not permitted unless express permission has been granted by a Dean.
5. The Dean is the final arbiter of whether a student is in compliance with the dress policy.

Uniform Violation Consequences

Major infractions of the dress code, such as a student being blatantly out of uniform or blatantly immodest, will result in the student receiving a demerit and/or being removed from the classroom until his or her parents are able to bring them a suitable change in clothes. A teacher or staff member should inform a student when they are out of uniform and ask them to correct the issue.

The specific uniform requirements for students can be found on the school website (www.pcabossier.org) and are also available from the school office.

Upper School Free Dress Code

Students are to follow the short/skirt lengths of the regular uniform policy. All shorts should have a minimum inseam of 5 inches. All hemlines of shorts/skirts should be clearly visible below any length shirt. Female athletic shorts, such as Nike brand running shorts, must be worn with biker shorts or leggings under them. No short shorts, flip flops, pajamas or costumes. All leggings (no flesh color) should be worn with shirts that fall long enough to touch mid-thigh. Spaghetti straps and tank tops must be covered with an appropriate top. Students who do not follow the guidelines will call parents to bring a change of clothes and may be subject to further discipline including demerits or losing privileges in future. All travel attire (including overnight trips) is to follow the free dress code requirements. If swimming is involved, all girls are to wear a modest one-piece bathing suit or the equivalent. Both girls and boys are required to cover up before and after swimming.

Uniform Policy (including Personal Appearance and Hygiene)

The Dean of Upper School determines whether students are complying with the standards of appearance and may ban other items or practices considered generally inconsistent with the intent of these guidelines. Further, the Dean may bar attendance of students in violation of these guidelines.

Lost and Found

As a courtesy to parents and students, the school has a Lost and Found area. Periodically the items are emptied. Labeled items are returned to students. Unidentifiable uniform items are laundered and added to the school's stock of used uniform items that are available for parents to purchase. Unidentifiable non-uniform items are taken to a thrift store. Prior notice is given via email whenever the lost and found is scheduled to be emptied.

It is very important that all students' clothing be marked with a complete and legible name. Please do not use the student's initials or the student's first name to mark clothing. The purpose of the marking is not only for the student to recognize their own clothing, but also so that a staff member will know whom to return it to. The use of iron-on or sew-in name labels is highly recommended. In addition, please do not forget to clearly mark your student's lunch box and backpack or portfolio.

3.12 Curriculum

Curriculum Materials

PCA strives for Classical Christian teaching methodologies, courses, and curricular choices at all grade levels. While we believe with confidence that the majority of our texts and teaching materials represent excellent choices for providing our students with a traditionally Classical Liberal Arts education, the faculty and administration are always critically reviewing curriculum materials and texts, especially as new courses are added to our curriculum. Parents interested in viewing a comprehensive list of the school's curriculum may contact the school office or speak to the Dean of Upper School.

PCA uses both Christian and secular textbooks as tools for teaching the curriculum. The curriculum committee regularly reviews the school's academic program, and when conducting a subject area review, the committee diligently examines a number of textbooks and strives to make the best choice after considering the school's requirement of academically excellent materials and the effective presentation of a biblical worldview. Materials with a secular worldview may be adopted for student use if, after thorough research, it appears that there are no biblically- based materials of equal or better quality. When secular materials are adopted for student use, the materials must be rigorously examined and countered in philosophy with biblical perspectives. Biblical principles related to the course objectives must be taught to the students.

COMMON CORE Curriculum: PCA bases its curriculum on a rich-tradition of Christian and Classical resources. Thus, PCA does not consider the Common Core when establishing its curriculum. However, PCA may use materials that state that they are designed for Common Core Curriculum. If a text is selected that has such verbiage, PCA will use the materials but will not in anyway be intentionally pursuing adherence to Common Core Curriculum standards.

Teachers have the freedom and the responsibility to choose supplemental materials within the boundaries of the following standards. Teachers must choose materials which:

- Best carry out the school's mission and goals.
- View the subject from a Christian viewpoint if those materials are available.
- Provide a balanced view of issues.
- May contain offensive elements if, and only if, the dean and a review committee believe that the overall effect of the materials will help carry out the school's mission well.
- Do not champion an immoral worldview, portray evil or unbelief in an approving manner, or lead participants to distorted conclusions about the Christian faith.
- Have been reviewed by the curriculum committee whenever the teacher has any reservations about whether the proposed materials satisfy the standards of selection or whenever a formal complaint has been written.
- Are age-appropriate and maturity-appropriate for the students.
- Compliment or enrich rather than increase the workload of the prescribed curriculum.

Special Needs Students

Definitions

Severe Learning Disabilities are any condition(s) in which a student or prospective student that would require a separate classroom, program, or personnel in order to provide the education desired by the parents. Severe learning disabilities include, but are not limited to Down's Syndrome, deafness, blindness, and muteness.

Mild Learning Disabilities are any condition(s) in which a student or prospective student does not require a separate classroom, program, or personnel in order to provide the education desired by the parents. Mild learning disabilities include, but are not limited to, Attention Deficit Disorder (ADD), Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) and minor dyslexia. For the purposes of this policy, the school does not consider whether the condition was properly diagnosed or whether it is a genuine learning disability.

To clarify the school's educational goals with respect to learning disabilities, the following guidelines are to be followed:

1. The school cannot admit children with severe learning disabilities because of its lack of adequate personnel, funding, and facilities.
2. In making admittance decisions, the accommodations necessary for students with mild disabilities will be a part of the considerations. In general, students diagnosed with mild learning disabilities are expected to meet identical academic and disciplinary standards as all other children at their grade level.
3. Children enrolled in the school who are subsequently diagnosed with mild learning disabilities will receive the same quality of individual instruction and encouragement as their peers. Some minor accommodations are possible and will be considered on a student-by-student basis.

Educational Resources

In seeking to meet the needs of each student, the school has referral options for students with learning disabilities. The specialist to whom the student is referred does not have a contractual relationship with PCA; parents must coordinate and pay for his/her services privately. In addition, the school offers optional speech and language screening for students. PCA reserves the right to set guidelines for any suggested accommodations for students with learning disabilities or special needs.

Summer Reading and Skill Retention

1. Part of the mission of the school is to help instill within its students a lifelong love for learning. In order to help achieve this goal, the school partners with parents as they convey to students the importance of developing strong reading habits.
2. The school's hope and desire is that students read several books during the summer.
3. In addition to making recommendations of books for rising 1st-12th grade students, the school provides a list of required books for PCA students to read over the summer.

Challenged Curriculum or Library Materials

1. In the event of parental objection to any textbook or other curriculum item, the parent should bring their complaint directly to the teacher for the class in which the materials are being used.
2. If the issue cannot be resolved by talking with the teacher, the parent will e-mail the appropriate Dean, who oversees PCA's curriculum.
3. The curriculum committee will examine the book, taking into consideration the school criteria for selection of materials and the time frame for adopting new materials. This will be done as expediently as possible.
4. The committee's recommendation for action will be returned to the appropriate Dean, with a copy for the parent and the school administration.
5. If dissatisfied with the committee's recommendation, the parent may route the objection to the Board of Directors through the appropriate Dean.
6. Parents should be aware of PCA's policy concerning selection of curriculum resources as stated in the Student Handbook.
7. The same procedure should be followed for objections to any library materials, except that the objection should be directed to the librarian. If the issue is not resolved through the librarian, the materials will be turned over to the administration for re-evaluation.

3.13 Emergency Procedures

Each classroom contains a copy of the Emergency Folder, which includes emergency procedures, policies, and protocol.

Drill Practices

Monthly practice evacuations of the school building are conducted, and tornado drills are conducted biannually.

Severe Weather:

1. PCA will not dismiss students in the event of a tornado watch or warning.
2. In the case of a watch, classes will remain in session. In the case of a warning, students will take cover in designated areas.
3. Parents who wish to pick up children may do so without penalty for absence. Parents who pick up children must be certain that regular checkout procedures are followed and that the student's classroom teacher is notified that the student has been picked up.

3.14 Events and Field Trips*Field Trips

Teachers may plan off-campus educational activities to enhance learning and accomplish goals that cannot be accomplished inside the classroom. Teachers are responsible for planning their own field trips, although they may enlist a parent to help with the details. Parents will be required to follow these guidelines:

1. Each student must have a permission slip signed by a parent before leaving campus on a field trip, and those permission slips should be taken along on the field trip so that the emergency information on the permission slips is accessible if needed.
2. Unless employed by the school, drivers must be on the school's approved driver list. To be on the approved driver list, an individual must submit a Volunteer Driver/Chaperone Application Form (Trak 1) and a copy of his/her driver's license and current vehicle insurance card.
3. Only screened and approved volunteers will be allowed to drive or supervise students other than their own child.
4. Drivers are expected to follow all driving laws and to keep cell phone usage to a minimum. There should be NO TEXTING. All students need to be properly restrained with seatbelts.

Assisting with supervision of students on a field trip is a very important role that parent volunteers can fill. However, when parents volunteer to help in this way, it is incumbent upon school personnel to take a firm stance with them regarding younger siblings accompanying the parent on the trip. Our experience is that younger siblings represent an unsafe distraction to parents in these settings, which compromises the safety of the students for whom the trip is planned. Therefore, when parents attend a field trip, they must make other arrangements to leave their uninvolved children.

Parent chaperones are required to conform to all PCA policies and protocol while they are acting in the place of other parents as a chaperone.

Field Trip Refund Policy: Unless specifically stated in the information about a field trip, monies paid for trips will not be refunded unless the school chooses to forbid a student from attending a field trip.

School-Sponsored Events

School-sponsored events are those events that (1) are organized by a member of the Administration or Faculty in his or her official capacity, or (2) are approved by the Administration but organized by an agent of the School, or (3) are published on the School's yearly calendar, or (4) receive the School's financial support.

1. School-sponsored activities must comply with the School's stated educational goals.
2. School-sponsored activities require the attendance of at least one member of the Board, Administration, or Faculty.
3. Students who do not attend PCA may not participate in school-sponsored activities, except with the explicit permission of the Dean of Upper School or Head of School.
4. The School must provide parents with timely information about school-sponsored activities. A Dean of the school must approve all written communication to parents concerning such activities.
5. Parents must sign a written waiver both releasing the School from any liability for each particular off campus school-sponsored activity and authorizing the School's procurement of any necessary treatment in the event of a medical emergency.
6. The School will advertise only school-sponsored activities in its official communications.
7. A Dean of the School must approve all proposed activities and their dates and determine the number of chaperones necessary.
8. Only school-sponsored activities will receive financial support from the School (e.g., free promotional copies and telephone usage, advertising assistance and use of supplies).

Field trips and school-sponsored college visits are considered a part of the curriculum and, as such, absences from these will be considered an unexcused absence.

3.15 Grievance Policy

The purpose of this policy is to establish biblical guidelines for the resolution of disputes and grievances that arise in the operation of Providence Classical Academy. These guidelines should be followed whenever a dispute or grievance concerning any aspect of the school's operation arises between or among any parties connected in a direct way to the school, including students, parents, volunteers, staff, administration and Board. In the event of a more serious, extraordinary grievance such as physical abuse, sexual harassment, or violations of law, the guidelines should be adhered to on an expedited basis, skipping consultations as appropriate. All disputes should be handled according to the Matthew 18 principle.

Definitions

Dispute: Any disagreement that results in broken fellowship or trust between or among parties, that disrupts the lines of authority in the school, or that (in the judgment of either disputant) threatens the successful implementation of the school's objectives and goals.

Grievance: A concern about any decision made by one in authority, where the concern is substantial enough to warrant an appeal of the decision to the next higher authority.

Concern: The substance of a dispute and/or grievance

Guidelines:

1. Students/parents to teachers:
  - a. All concerns about the classroom must first be presented to the teacher by the parents or, if the student is mature enough, by the student himself. If the student presents the concern, a respectful demeanor is required at all times.

b. If the problem is not resolved, the parents or student may bring the concern to the appropriate Dean. To do so, they should accompany the concern with proof that they have sought to resolve the matter first with the teacher.

c. If the problem is still not resolved, the parents or student may bring the concern to the Head of School. To do so, they first need to submit the concern to the Head of School in writing. In bringing the concern to the Head of school, they should accompany the concern with proof that they have sought to resolve the matter first with the Dean.

d. If the parents or student believe that the matter has been handled by the Head of School in a way that is inappropriate, they may submit their complaint to the president of the PCA board through written communication.

2. Parents/patrons to administrator:

a. If parents or students have a grievance or dispute about the general operation of the school (apart from the operation of the classrooms), they should bring their concerns to the appropriate Dean.

b. If there is no resolution, they should bring their concerns to the Head of School.

c. If there is still no resolution, the parent or student may submit their complaint to the PCA board through written communication to the board president.

d. This procedure applies also to board members who are acting in their capacity as parents/patrons and not as representatives of the board.

3. Parents to Head of School or PCA Board:

a. If parents have a grievance or dispute about the policies of the school or regarding concerns about the head of school or the board, they should bring their concerns to the head of school.

b. If there is no resolution, they should put their grievance or dispute in writing to the Providence Classical Academy Board through the board president. The PCA Board will take the concern into consideration and respond to the grievance by the next meeting.

c. Communication with the PCA Board on official school matters should never take place in informal conversation. All official communication with the PCA Board should be made through the Head of School or written communication through the Board President or by attendance at a scheduled board meeting.

4. Parent to Parent:

a. Parents are encouraged to train their children in the appropriate resolution of matters within the community of believers.

b. When possible disputes between students or parents should be resolved face to face and with Christian charity.

c. The deans or head of school should only be involved in disputes or actions that affect the student body of Providence Classical Academy. Individual disputes should be handled by the parties involved at the individual level.

5. Other Concerns and Suggestions. For concerns not relating to a specific individual, the student should consider other options including:

a. Students may give suggestions to one of their teachers for consideration.

- b. Students may request to meet with the appropriate Dean or Head of School individually or in small groups.
- c. Students should be willing to accept the decisions, outcomes and wisdom of those whom God has placed in authority over them, even when they disagree.
- d. If a dispute among families becomes disruptive to the school, the Head reserves the right to become involved in the matter.

3.16 Medical Policy

1. It is the expectation that families keep ill children at home so that infectious conditions are not spread to classmates, faculty, and staff. This includes not sending children to school if they have had any of the following within the previous 24 hours:
  - a. Fever >100.4°
  - b. Vomiting
  - c. Diarrhea
  - d. Excessive coughing
  - e. Excessive nasal drainage
2. Should a child become ill or be injured during the school day, the office will make every effort to care for them so that they may return to class. If necessary, students will be allowed to rest 15-20 minutes before deciding if they will return to class or if a parent will be contacted in order for the child to be taken home.
3. A student whose temperature is 100.4° or higher, who experiences vomiting or diarrhea at school, or whom the teacher feels has excessive coughing or nasal drainage will be asked to go home and should not return to school until he/she has not experienced these symptoms for 24 hours.
4. When parents are notified of the need to pick up their student, the student MUST be picked up within 30 minutes of being called. If this is not possible, we ask that arrangements be made to have the student picked up by someone other than the parent.
5. It is required that a parent/guardian complete the medical information on the enrollment form for each student. Please keep the school updated of any changes in relevant health history, or any changes regarding medication. When you choose your local emergency contact, make sure that person is aware of your choice, and consider providing him/her with copies of your medical insurance information card and a Power of Attorney that legally authorizes him/her to seek medical care for your child in the event that you are unavailable.
6. See the Medication Policy for the school's guidelines for administering medication to a student at school.

Medication Policy

The policies regulating the administration of medication during school hours are for the students' safety and are mandated by the state of Louisiana. School personnel will only be able to administer medication after the Medication Administration Form is properly completed and signed by the parent for all medication and by the physician for prescription medication.

1. If your child requires medication during the school day, a Medication Administration Form must be on file in the office. The form must be signed by a parent (and by a physician for prescription medication) annually and updated immediately as changes occur. It is recommended that the first dose of any new medication be administered at home.
2. Over-the-counter medication supplied by parents must be turned in to the front office by

- a parent in the original manufacturer's container.
3. Prescription medications must be brought to the front office by the parent in the current, original, properly-labeled container, as dispensed by the pharmacist or physician. Under no condition will children, including siblings, be allowed to share prescription medications. A Medication Administration Form and Medication Order Form must be signed by both the parent AND the physician who prescribed the medicine.
  4. The parent must deliver all medication (over-the-counter and prescription) to the school for verification and inventory. All medication must be picked up by the parent at the end of the school year or upon discontinuation of use. Any medication not picked up by the end of the school year will be discarded.
  5. Medication labels must contain the student's name, name of medication, directions for use, and date. Physician's order and medication label must be the same.
  6. For those children with EpiPen prescriptions, a Medication Administration Form and Medication Order Form must be completed and signed by the parent AND physician. This form is available at the school. Two sets of emergency medications are to be supplied by the parent- one to remain in the classroom with the child and one in the office.
  7. NO medication of any kind may be carried on a student's person without permission from the administration.
  8. Essential oils are considered an over-the-counter medication and may not be in a student's possession during the school day. Parents may apply essential oils to their student directly either before school or during the school day.

Serious Disease Guidelines

This applies to all students, employees and volunteers of the school.

Serious diseases are communicable diseases that are potentially life-threatening or that can cause permanent bodily damage. Meningitis, AIDS (Acquired Immune-Deficiency Syndrome ) and pneumonia are examples. Common colds, acute influenza, chicken pox, strep throat, lice and the like, though unpleasant and contagious, are not considered serious diseases.

1. The administration will take all appropriate precautions (including isolating the student(s) who may have contracted or been exposed to the disease) to reduce the risk of infection of any student, employee, or volunteer by any known serious diseases.
2. The school will not be held responsible for the communication of any serious disease that was introduced to the school without the knowledge of the administration.
3. Upon receiving reliable information that a student, employee or volunteer has contracted or been exposed to a serious disease, the administration will immediately contact the parents of any involved student, the Board and (at the discretion of the administration) local health officials and the Center for Disease Control in Atlanta, Georgia to obtain pertinent information.
4. Based upon all available information, the administration will determine what actions are necessary. The administration will then contact the parents of the affected student(s) and relay to them the information it has received as well as the decisions it has made.
5. The administration may require a student to remain home for a specific or indefinite period of time.
6. The Board and administration may close the school in extreme cases.

Injuries at School

Students who incur an injury at school will be cared for within the parameters allowed. The parent will be notified by the Injury Report Form, which will be sent home with the student. The parent will also be notified by phone for more serious injuries.

3.17 Privacy Policy

For the purposes of this policy, "Providence Classical Academy" refers to persons who are part of the faculty, staff, and/or members of the governing board of PCA. "The community of PCA" refers to persons who are students, other members of a student's own household, and persons who are part of "PCA."

The Community of Providence Classical Academy-Personal Information: The privacy of the students, parents, faculty, staff, and Board of PCA is valuable, and is a matter of great importance and trust.

Personal information, (including, but not limited to names, addresses, phone numbers, and email addresses) may only be distributed among persons belonging to the community of PCA, and may not be distributed by PCA to any other parties.

Friends and Guests-Personal Information: Personal information received by PCA belonging to persons other than the community of PCA will be treated with care. Reasonable efforts will be made to ensure that the information is distributed only as needed at PCA, and will not be distributed to other parties.

Providence Classical Academy-Internal Communication: Personal information may be distributed among PCA for purposes of school-related business only. PCA will endeavor to avoid excessive reproduction of personal information to minimize the possibility of improper distribution of personal information belonging to the community of PCA, and personal information belonging to friends and guests.

Providence Classical Academy-Community Communication: Community communication of personal information shall be governed by the principle of "one document, one recipient". Each document containing personal information will be intended only for the receipt of one person or household. The following statement shall appear on documents, in any form, that contain personal information belonging to anyone other than the sender or the recipient:

In accordance with the Privacy Policy of PCA, this document and any associated documents are intended only for the use of the initial recipient and may contain information that is privileged and confidential. Any use of this information for anything other than its intended purpose or by anyone other than the initial recipient constitutes a violation of the privacy policy of PCA. If you have any questions about this policy, please contact the school's office manager.

3.18 School Day

School Hours

Grades 7 - 12: 7:50 a.m. - 3:05 p.m.

Please note that classes begin promptly at these times. An early arrival allows a student time to prepare for the day.

Student Arrival and Dismissal Procedures

In order to ensure the safe arrival and departure of students both to and from school, these procedures are to be followed. Any parent or guardian who demonstrates unsafe conduct while driving (including but not limited to: not following signals given to ensure safety, use of cell phones while operating a vehicle on school property, any other behavior deemed unsafe by school officials) during drop-off and pickup times before and after school will be given a warning about safe driving on school premises. Any further disregard for safety will result in the family being asked to pick up their child at a specified time determined by the administration.

Arrival Procedures

Students may arrive beginning at 7:30 a.m. The doors will be locked promptly at 7:50 a.m. Students who arrive to school at any point after the school day has begun must report to the office to sign in, explain the reason for the late arrival, and receive a pass to get into class. The student will receive a tardy for late arrival.

Dismissal Procedures

Every parent is given a hanging tag with their child(ren)'s name on it. The tag needs to be hung from the rearview mirror, and removed once all the children you are picking up are in the vehicle. It is critical to follow the signals of the faculty guiding the traffic.

Safety Guidelines for the Carpool Line

- NO CALLING OR TEXTING DURING CARPOOL
- Watch the traffic directors
- Drive slowly--observe 5 mph speed limit

Student Drivers

Parking privileges may be withdrawn for behavioral infractions (including tardiness, excessive absences) or poor grades. Also, cell phones must not be used while operating a moving vehicle on campus. Students using cell phones while driving on campus will be restricted from driving on campus.

School-wide Policies:

1. All students must have a current dismissal authorization card (colored card) on record.
2. Without written permission including email, the student will not be allowed to leave until a parent is contacted.
3. School personnel are not authorized to facilitate pickup arrangements. Please do not call the school office to inform students of changes, etc. Exceptions will be made in the case of emergencies.

Late Pickup

PCA does not monitor pickup arrangements or means of departure for Upper School students after the 3:05 p.m. dismissal time. All Upper School students are expected to leave campus no later than 3:25 p.m. unless they are participating in an after-school activity. The school will not assume responsibility for those students who remain on campus after that time but are not involved in an after-school activity.

Student Checkout Procedures

Under no circumstances is a student allowed to leave campus without parental permission. Any student who needs to leave school early must provide a note for his/her classroom teacher. Upper School students must also provide the note for the office staff before checking out.

Students must be signed out by a parent or authorized adult in the appropriate school office. Students of driving age may sign themselves out if the office has parental confirmation.

Parents are asked to make every effort to schedule medical or other appointments outside of school hours and to check out students early only when absolutely necessary.

Lunch

All students have a lunch-time break/recess between 11:50 a.m. and 12:20pm. Microwaves are available for all upper school students to use. Providence also contracts with a food service provider who offers school lunches to students.

Holiday Recognition

PCA's position regarding diverse Christian freedoms has been to build harmony, unity, and fellowship instead of divisiveness. The issue of celebrating certain holidays and the level of participation falls within the realm of Christian freedom. The school does not want to dictate an area of Christian freedom and believes that each family should determine the level and means of celebrating holidays with religious impact in their home. In order to respect the different positions among our school families, Halloween will not be celebrated at school. Beyond that, the emphasis will be placed on the Christian significance for a holiday. The secular elements of a holiday will be minimized or excluded.

3.19 Standardized Testing

1. Standardized testing is given to all students in grades 2-8 in the Spring of each school year. Students and parents will be given a copy of the results when they are received. School-wide results are also shared with the Board of Directors. If a parent wishes to receive a copy of the overall test results, he/she should contact the appropriate Dean.
2. The PSAT is given to all students in grades 10-11 on a set testing day in October. This is also recommended, but not mandatory, for 9th graders.
3. Rhetoric students are personally responsible for signing up for the SAT or ACT examinations. Information regarding test dates is available from College Guidance Counselor and on the school website.

3.20 Student Textbooks

The school provides textbooks to students, the cost of which is included in tuition. If a student loses a textbook, the total replacement cost for the book must be paid, and a replacement textbook will be issued. If the student later finds the missing book, money will be refunded only if the replacement book issued to the student came from the school's existing inventory. If the school had to order the replacement book, no money will be refunded. An appropriate fee will also be assessed for textbooks that are damaged beyond what occurs with normal use. Report cards may be held until books are returned or replacement fines paid.

For non-consumable textbooks, teachers should number each book, note the condition, and assign a numbered book to each student. At the end of each school year, teachers are responsible for collecting textbooks from students and following up on books that were not turned in. Report cards may be withheld until books are found or fines are paid for lost or damaged books.

3.21 Social Policies

Guidelines for Music Played at PCA and PCA-Sponsored Events

The desire of PCA is to choose things that are true, good, and beautiful, and, as such, we desire to play music on campus and at all PCA-sponsored events that is in accord with this principle. To that end, we require that the music not violate any of the following standards:

1. No profanity.
2. No sexually suggestive songs.
3. No taking the Lord's name in vain.
4. No overt heresy
5. No songs that celebrate evil.

In applying this principle, we also do not want songs that have been edited (cleaned up or spliced to remove the objectionable materials) for content or clips from songs that include prohibited content.

While we will not monitor individual cars, we do encourage parents to adhere to these standards while driving students on PCA functions. This policy does not forbid a teacher from discussing such music as a means of challenging and exposing the culture's erroneous worldview as seen through songs.

Conflict Resolution Policy

Relationship difficulties are normal parts of the human experience. When these difficulties are not handled properly, all parties are negatively affected, and the successful implementation of PCA's goals is threatened. Therefore, it is imperative that all disputes or conflicts between parties directly connected to the school be handled in a biblical manner according to the principles outlined in Matthew 18, found in Appendix A. The first step in conflict resolution is to go directly to the person with whom the conflict exists in order to attempt resolution. If a satisfactory resolution is not forthcoming at this level, the two parties should take the issue to the next level. If the issue is between a parent and a teacher or staff person, the next levels would be the dean and then the Head of School. If the issue is with the dean and is not resolved by speaking with him/her, the issue should then be taken to a head-of-school. The key is to follow the chain of command shown below and to make every effort to resolve conflicts without involving outside parties.

Parents -> Teachers -> Dean-> Head of School

Human Dignity/Anti-Bullying/Anti-Cyberbullying Policy

PCA intends to provide its teachers and students an environment that is free of offensive kinds of behavior. Conduct, whether intentional or unintentional, that subjects another person to unwanted attention, comments, or actions because of race, national origin, age, sex, physical characteristics, or disability is not permitted. Instead, we expect all persons to treat each other with dignity and respect. These are the features of the policy:

1. We do not condone or allow any harassment or bullying (continued harassment that is targeted towards an individual or a group) by teachers, administrators, support staff, students, or other persons present in our facilities.

2. Any person who believes he or she has been subjected to harassment should report it immediately to an appropriate superior. Students may report to a teacher or an administrator. Teachers should report an offense to the appropriate Dean or the Head of School. Each report will be given serious consideration and investigated thoroughly by the administration.
3. Reports of harassment or bullying or cyber-bullying and subsequent investigations will be handled discreetly to avoid embarrassment of the person making the report or a person who may be unjustly accused.
4. Actions considered as harassment include obscene gestures or making faces, physical acts of aggression or abuse (including hitting, choking, pushing, tripping, damaging personal property, or unauthorized use of personal property), repeated and purposeful shunning, and forms of written or verbal harassment (including electronic communication, i.e., cyberbullying), which would include name calling, threatening harm, taunting, malicious teasing, or spreading untrue rumors. While usually behavior that occurs off-campus is not a matter of school discipline, cyberbullying that occurs outside of school hours will be subject to school discipline.
5. Any person who is determined to have violated this policy will be subject to corrective action and discipline, including termination (for teachers) or expulsion (for students).
6. Sexual harassment includes making unwelcome sexual advances, engaging in improper physical contact, making improper sexual comments, or otherwise creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive learning or employment environment.
7. Any other form of ridicule of others based on race, physical characteristics, ability, family background, or similar feature will not be tolerated. Persons engaging in this misbehavior will be strongly disciplined.
8. All students and all school employees are expected to conduct themselves with respect for the dignity of others.

Non-custodial Parents

Divorced and separated families are realities of contemporary life that affect the school's responsibilities to its students. When custody rights have been established by a court of law, a copy of all pertinent legal documents must be on file with the dean's office. The following guidelines have been adopted to assist the school in situations where a non-custodial parent wishes to become involved in school-related activities of a child or wishes to have contact with or take custody of the child while the child is at school:

1. Ordinarily, the school will not resist or interfere with a non-custodial parent's attendance at school-related programs or access to the child or the child's records unless the school is presented with a court order or comparable legal document restricting such involvement or access. The school will not otherwise choose sides between parents.
2. Only parents who have entered into a contractual relationship with the school are considered part of the parent body.
3. Items of communication or information from the school will be addressed to the custodial parent. The non-custodial parent can request that duplicate copies of such items be sent to him/her as well, though the school may charge a small fee to cover postage and handling.
4. Concerning student activities that require parental consent, the school will accept consent only from the custodial parent.

5. A non-custodial parent may not take custody of a child or remove the child from school premises unless the parent presents a written court order or the school gets verified authorization in writing from the custodial parent.
6. By law, both parents, whether married, separated, or divorced, have access to the records of a student who is a minor or a dependent for tax purposes. A parent whose rights have been legally terminated will be denied access to the records of the school if the school has been given a copy of the court order terminating these rights.
7. If the actions of parents, custodial or non-custodial, become disruptive to the operations of the school, the school has the right to restrict access by such parents and to take other necessary action.

Any visitor restrictions for students must be made in writing and submitted to the office, preferably with a picture of the person restricted from seeing the student.

The Matthew 18 Principle

A Scriptural Understanding and Practical Application of this Important Biblical Principle

Virtually no one enjoys conflict and confrontation. Yet, in our imperfect and fallen world, relationship difficulties are normal parts of the human experience, and some conflicts and confrontation are simply inevitable. Breakdowns in effective relationships, when not handled properly, often hinder progress, usually upset all parties, and, generally speaking, are destructive and demoralizing. Therefore, it is extremely critical that a proper application of sound problem-solving skills be employed at PCA.

Christians should be encouraged to know that the ultimate textbook of knowledge and wisdom, God's Holy Word, provides very specific guidelines and mandates for effective conflict resolution. Specifically, Matthew 18:15-17 provides the following scriptural mandate for keeping communication lines open and intact:

“If your brother sins against you, go and show him his fault just between the two of you. If he listens to you, you have won your brother over. But if he will not listen, take one or two brothers along, so that every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses. If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if he refuses to listen even to the church, treat him as you would a pagan or a tax collector.”

In practical terms, how are the principles of Matthew 18 applied to the real life situations at PCA? First of all, the offended party should always directly confront the “offending” party before taking the issue to any other party. Hopefully, the problem will be solved at this point. If a satisfactory resolution is not forthcoming at this level, the two parties should take the issue to the next level. If the issue is between a parent and a teacher or staff person, the next level would be the appropriate Dean, and beyond that, the Head of School. If an issue is with the Head of School and is not resolved by speaking with him/her, the issue should be submitted to the PCA Board through written communication to the Board President. The key here is to make every effort to resolve conflicts without involving outside parties.

Grievance Policy

The purpose of this policy is to establish biblical guidelines for the resolution of disputes and grievances that arise in the operation of Providence Classical Academy. These guidelines should be followed whenever a dispute or grievance concerning any aspect of the school's operation arises between or among any parties connected in a direct way to the school, including students, parents, volunteers, staff, administration and Board. In the event of a more serious, extraordinary grievance such as physical abuse, sexual harassment, or violations of law, the guidelines should be adhered to on an expedited basis, skipping consultations as appropriate. All disputes should be handled according to the Matthew 18 principle.

Definitions

Dispute: Any disagreement that results in broken fellowship or trust between or among parties, that disrupts the lines of authority in the school, or that (in the judgment of either disputant) threatens the successful implementation of the school's objectives and goals.

Grievance: A concern about any decision made by one in authority, where the concern is substantial enough to warrant an appeal of the decision to the next higher authority.

Concern: The substance of a dispute and/or grievance.

Guidelines:

1. Students/parents to teachers:

- a. All concerns about the classroom must first be presented to the teacher by the parents or, if the student is mature enough, by the student himself. If the student presents the concern, a respectful demeanor is required at all times.
- b. If the problem is not resolved, the parents or student may bring the concern to the appropriate Dean. To do so, they should accompany the concern with proof that they have sought to resolve the matter first with the teacher.
- c. If the problem is still not resolved, the parents or student may bring the concern to the Head of School. To do so, they first need to submit the concern to the Head of School in writing. In bringing the concern to the Head of school, they should accompany the concern with proof that they have sought to resolve the matter first with the Dean.
- d. If the parents or student believe that the matter has been handled by the Head of School in a way that is inappropriate, they may submit their complaint to the president of the PCA board through written communication.

2. Parents/patrons to administrator:

- a. If parents or students have a grievance or dispute about the general operation of the school (apart from the operation of the classrooms), they should bring their concerns to the appropriate dean.
- b. If there is no resolution, they should bring their concerns to the Head of School.
- c. If there is still no resolution, the parent or student may submit their complaint to the the PCA board through written communication to the board president.

d. This procedure applies also to board members who are acting in their capacity as parents/patrons and not as representatives of the board.

3. Parents to Head of School or PCA Board:

a. If parents have a grievance or dispute about the policies of the school or regarding concerns about the head of school or the board, they should bring their concerns to the head of school.

b. If there is no resolution, they should put their grievance or dispute in writing to the Providence Classical Academy Board through the board president. The PCA Board will take the concern into consideration and respond to the grievance by the next meeting.

c. Communication with the PCA Board on official school matters should never take place in informal conversation. All official communication with the PCA Board should be made through the Head of School or written communication through the Board President or by attendance at a scheduled board meeting.

4. Parent to Parent:

a. Parents are encouraged to train their children in the appropriate resolution of matters within the community of believers.

b. When possible disputes between students or parents should be resolved face to face and with Christian charity.

c. The deans or head of school should only be involved in disputes or actions that affect the student body of Providence Classical Academy. Individual disputes should be handled by the parties involved at the individual level.

5. Other Concerns and Suggestions. For concerns not relating to a specific individual, the student should consider other options including:

a. Students may give suggestions to one of their teachers for consideration.

b. Students may request to meet with the appropriate Dean of the Head of School individually or in small groups.

c. Students should be willing to accept the decisions, outcomes and wisdom of those whom God has placed in authority over them, even when they disagree.

d. If a dispute among families becomes disruptive to the school, the Head of School reserves the right to become involved in the matter.

Letter regarding sickness

Dear Parents,

As a school we are committed to doing our part in preventing the spread of sickness and health-related problems among our students. PCA has had a long standing policy related to students returning to school after contagious illnesses, and we ask that you familiarize yourself with these policies now and refer to them as necessary throughout the year.

In order to clarify a student's level of wellness and to ensure that we all remain diligent in adhering to our stated guidelines, we will ask that if your child leaves school due to sickness or if he or she cannot come to school due to sickness that you not only follow the long standing policy of keeping him or her at home until he or she has remained fever free or has not vomited or had diarrhea for at least 24 hours. Additionally, when you send your child back to school, we ask that you provide your child's teacher with a note stating the following:

a) The reason your child was absent (ex: Two days ago, John had a fever when he woke up. I kept him at home, deciding to let it run its course. By mid afternoon his temperature was normal. In keeping with the school's policy, I kept him at home again yesterday to ensure that he remained fever free for 24 hours.)

b) The treatment you administered if this would be helpful for the teacher to know (ex: I took Mary to our pediatrician, who believed that she had a 24-hour virus and that she would be fine to return to school by Thursday.)

c) Verification that you have followed our policy regarding return (ex: Susie's temperature has been consistently normal since she woke up yesterday with no spikes at all during the day.)

Please note that, while you may choose to give your children medication to reduce fevers and make them more comfortable, a normal temperature as the result of a dose of Tylenol does not qualify a child as being "fever free."

If this expectation seems overbearing to you, I apologize, and I assure that creating a hardship for any parent is not our goal. Sending children to school when there is even a trace of sickness still in their system is almost a guarantee that they will tire more easily than normal, the symptoms of the sickness will return and they will have subjected classmates to the same germs, thus spreading the sickness throughout the class and often into other classes as well.

I will close in stating that if your child is sent home early due to sickness or if your child misses one or more entire days due to sickness and you forget to send the requested note upon his or her return, we will keep your student in the office until we have spoken to you to gain assurance that the above expectations have been met.

Thank you, in advance, for your understanding and cooperation in this matter. Together we can ensure that we keep the spread of sickness and germs to a minimum this school year.

Student Locker Policy

The use of student lockers at PCA is a privilege. PCA has the authority to assign, limit the use of, or terminate the use of student lockers.

PCA has the authority to open and inspect lockers as well as to take custody of any contraband items found in lockers. Contraband will be considered any item so defined by law, policy, regulation, or any item deemed by the administration to be a danger to the health, safety, and welfare of our students.

The discovery of such contraband items could result in disciplinary action.

It is strongly advised that assigned lockers be locked at all times by a combination or key lock purchased by the parents. PCA is not responsible for lost or stolen items that are in an unsecured locker. It is expected that students will not share their locker combinations or open lockers not assigned to them.

The correct lock combination or spare key must be on file with the administration. If a locker cannot be accessed by the code on file, the lock will be cut and replaced at the parent's expense.

Students are responsible for keeping their lockers clean, neat, and secured. Failure to so maintain a locker could result in the loss of locker privilege. Content of a locker is the responsibility of the student to whom the locker is issued. If items that do not belong to a student are placed in his locker, the student has the responsibility to inform the administration.

I have read the policy and accept the responsibility of using a PCA locker.

Providence Classical Academy Volunteer Agreement

Please read the following statements carefully and sign below to indicate your agreement.

I hereby affirm that I have been provided a copy of the current PCA Parent-Student Handbook, which includes the PCA Mission, Vision and Principles, its Statement of Faith, Code of Ethics, and Parent Expectations. I certify that I consent to and will submit to all Governing Policies of the school, including all applicable policies in the Handbook, so that my words and actions will not violate the standards defined by the Mission and Vision of the school as well as the Governing Policies of the school.

By way of example, I understand that the Standards and Governing Policies of the school do not tolerate profanity, obscenity in word or action, blatant irreverence to the Lord and Word of God, flagrant and/or continued disrespect to the personnel of the school, or to the established policies of the school. I further understand that school authorities have the right to terminate my volunteer services at any time.

Computer and Internet Usage Agreement

COMPUTER AND INTERNET USAGE TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Computer and Internet usage will be allowed only upon receipt of a signed copy of this agreement.

Computer and Internet access is available to 7th through 12th grade students.

The healthy operation of the network relies upon the proper conduct of the end users who must adhere to strict guidelines. These guidelines are provided here so that you are aware of the responsibilities you are about to acquire. If a PCA user violates any of these provisions, his or her usages may be limited or terminated and future access can be denied. The signature(s) at the end of this document is (are) legally binding and indicates the party (parties) who signed read the terms and conditions carefully and understand(s) their significance.

Risk

It is impossible to control all materials on the Internet. Sites accessible via the Internet may contain material that is illegal, defamatory, obscene, inaccurate or controversial. With global access to computers and people, there is a risk that students may access material that may not be considered to be of educational value in the context of the school setting.

Authorized Use

The use of your account must be in support of education and research.

Privilege

Use of PCA computers and internet access is a privilege, not a right.

Voluntary

Use of PCA computers and internet access is voluntary on the part of the student.

Network Etiquette

You are expected to abide by the generally accepted rules of network etiquette. These include (but are not limited to) the following:

1. Maintain the security of the network by keeping information, especially passwords and account numbers, private.
2. Refrain from behavior or activity that damages or disrupts the performance of the network such as streaming music.
3. Use the network for approved, legal activities which have educational relevance.
4. Honor all rules of copyright and personal property.
5. Avoid the spread of computer viruses.
6. Use only acceptable appropriate language. Avoid offensive or inflammatory speech.
7. Use real name in all communications. Impersonation, anonymity, or pseudonyms are not permitted.
8. Note that all electronic mail (email) is not guaranteed to be private. Individuals who operate the system will have access to all mail. Messages relating to or in furtherance of illegal activities will be reported to the authorities.

Inappropriate Use

Inappropriate use includes, but is not limited to, those uses that violate the law, that are specifically named as violations in this document, that violate the rules of the network etiquette or that hamper the integrity or security of this or any networks connected to the Internet.

Violation of law

Transmission of any material in violation of any international, US or state law is prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to: copyrighted material, threatening, harassing or obscene material, or material protected by trade secret. Any attempt to break the law while using a PCA computers and internet access may result in litigation against the offender by the proper authorities. If such an event should occur, PCA will fully comply with the authorities to provide any information necessary for the litigation process.

Commercial Use

Use for commercial, “for-profit” activities or product advertisement is prohibited.

Vandalism/Mischief

Vandalism and mischief are prohibited. Vandalism is defined as any malicious attempt to harm or destroy data of another user, the Internet, or any networks that are connected to the Internet. This includes but is not limited to, the deliberate creation and/or propagation of computer viruses. Sending unsolicited junk mail or chain letters is prohibited. Any interference with the work of other users is construed as mischief and is strictly prohibited.

Electronic Mail Violations

Forgery of electronic mail messages is prohibited. Reading, deleting, copying, or modifying the electronic mail of other users is prohibited.

File/Data Violations

Deletion, examination, copying, or modification for files and/or data belonging to other users is prohibited.

Consequences of Policy Violation

An attempt to violate the provisions of this policy may result in revocation of the users Internet access privileges and/or account.

Additional consequences

School disciplinary action, including suspension or expulsion, and/or appropriate legal action may be taken.

Security

Security on any computer system is a high priority, especially when the system involves many users. IF you feel you can identify a security problem on the Internet, you must notify your Dean. Do not demonstrate the problem to other users. Do not use another individual’s account at any time. Attempts to log on to the Internet as a system administrator will result in cancellation of user privileges. ### Admissions Standards for Providence Classical Academy

Providence Classical Academy (PCA) believes that parents have the biblical responsibility to educate and train their children. Providence serves families by providing an academically challenging, Classical education based on a Christian worldview with the intentional goal of building the academic knowledge and nurturing faith in Christ and Christlikeness in each of our students. Providence seeks like-minded families with academically able children who demonstrate the ability to succeed in its rigorous academic environment. Parents should carefully examine the Providence Statement of Faith, established by the board of directors. This document forms the foundation of Providence's spiritual and educational programs.

Admission Requirements

Student Admission Requirements (K4/Bridge-1st Grades)

A child must have reached the age of four years by September 30th of the Fall in which he or she would be entering K4; five years of age for entrance into Kindergarten; six years of age for entrance into the first grade.

He or she must be fully toilet-trained (able to use the toilet independently and wash his/her hands). Parents must supply school with a change of clothing for K4/Bridge and Kindergarten students. On a rare occasion of a severe bathroom accident, the parent or emergency contact will be asked to pick up the child.

Every child must take an entrance exam prior to acceptance. If a child has successfully completed the previous school year and his or her schoolwork and behavior compare favorably to Providence's standards, he or she will be placed in the grade for which he is applying. However, if there is evidence that the child may not be adequately prepared for the next sequential grade level, he or she may be required to repeat the previous grade.

The student should understand that his or her parents have delegated their authority to the school during the school day. Therefore, the student is subject to the instruction and discipline of the teacher and administration in their prescribed roles at Providence.

Providence does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin in the administration of its policies, admissions, financial aid, and other school-directed programs.

Student Admission Requirements (2nd - 8th Grades)

Complete grade cards from previous schools attended, and standardized test scores will be reviewed by Providence. All students will be given a preparedness test and an interview to ensure they are academically prepared to succeed in the grade for which they are seeking entrance.

Student acceptance will be based upon a student interview, parent interview, entrance testing, and review of the student's previous academic and behavioral records. Factors that will determine acceptance include the student's academic standing, desire to excel academically, their goal to grow in their understanding of Christ, and the parent's willingness to partner with Providence in the process of educating and discipling their child. To successfully learn and benefit from the challenging academic environment at Providence, students should have no major learning disabilities or significant prior behavior concerns.

If a child has demonstrated academic strength in his or her previous school year and his or her schoolwork and behavior compares favorably to Providence's standards, he or she will be placed in the grade for which he is applying.

Student Admission Requirements (9th-12th)

Providence only considers high school transfer students with exceptional academic aptitude and behavior favorable to Providence's standards.

Transfer students are required to provide transcripts and standardized testing results from their previous school sometime after they have applied, but before the family interview.

Student acceptance will be based upon a student interview, parent interview, entrance testing, and review of the student's previous academic and behavioral records. Factors that

Admission Requirement for the Parents

Parents are required to willingly cooperate with all the written policies of Providence Classical Academy. This is especially important in the area of standards of conduct, discipline, and schoolwork standards, as well as active communication with the respective teachers and administration. In addition, parents are strongly encouraged to become active volunteers in other areas of the school.

Though not required to be Christians, the parents of students at Providence Classical Academy should have a clear understanding of the school's biblical philosophy and purpose. This understanding includes a willingness to have their child exposed to the clear teaching (not forced indoctrination) of the PCA's "Statement of Faith" in various and frequent ways within the school's program.

Parents should have a clear understanding of our unique classical educational approach. Parents should carefully read the informational materials about the school. We also strongly encourage each parent to read the book by Douglas Wilson, "Recovering the Lost Tools of Learning," as one of the best texts for explaining the kind of program we offer at PCA.

Please contact our office at office@pcabossier.org for more information about our admissions policy.

Students with Learning Disabilities

Providence cannot provide students with learning disabilities the special instruction, staff, or facilities they might need. However, the parents of a child with learning disabilities and the dean may meet to discuss the applicant's circumstances. If after reviewing the child's needs it is determined that the child could meet with success, Providence will admit the child on a probationary basis. The child would be expected to attend classes with other children in his grade level and do the same type of work. He would be given the same amount of individual instruction and encouragement as his classmates. It must be emphasized that academically the student will probably have a difficult time with the course work.

Students with Behavior Problems

Behavior problems from previous schooling or from outside of school, presents a more difficult problem. While recognizing that all students are sinners and all sinners can be changed by the saving work of Christ, Providence does not accept students who are likely behavior problems.

The following types of behavior issues would likely result in denied admission:

- Expulsion from or detention in another school.
- Record of repeated violations of civil law or criminal behavior.
- Running away from home and other forms of refusing to submit to parental authority.
- Gang activity.
- Rebellious attitude, including hostility to attending Providence.

Our faculty members are here primarily to teach subjects, rather than to forcibly discipline students. As a school, we are unable to correct social problems from previous school experiences, family problems, peer influences outside of school, or attitudes. The Deans will listen to any person's particular circumstances. The basic position still stands, however, that students with discipline problems cannot be admitted. Believing that God graciously changes people, we are willing to hear and consider any case.

Every incoming student is admitted under a 1 year probationary period.
